Some Minor changes have been made by Pastor Roepke. Most of the sections that have been changed have been marked.

This is provided as a cost effective copy of Luther's Small Catechism.

We suggest if you wish for a more modern translation and more durable copy you Purchase, Luther's Small Catechism with Explanation # 22-3079 from Concordia Publishing House St. Louis Missouri. cph.org or 1-800-325-3040.

We invite you to join us for worship at 10 AM Sunday.

Please note we practice close communion and are willing to visit on this issue. Please see our notice below on close communion.

Close Communion: All Christian denominations hold many things in common, such as a common faith in the one true God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and Jesus as the only Savior. At the same time there are important differences in what the various Christian denominations teach and believe. Membership in a church body identifies a person with the teachings of that church body.

We believe that God's Word teaches that receiving the Lord's Supper involves a confession of unity in belief among those who partake of the Lord's Supper. To hold membership in a church that teaches one thing and then commune in a church that teaches something different is a contradiction.

Therefore in the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod we believe and practice "Close Communion," Which means we partake of the Lord's Supper only with those of our own denomination. We realize that you may disagree with us and that it may be hard for you to understand, but we ask that you respect our position. The Biblical basis for this teaching and practice is too complex to explain in this announcement. If you wish to discuss this matter, the Pastor will be happy to visit with you.

The 10 Commandments

THE FIRST COMMANDMENT GOD

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should fear, love and trust in God above all things.

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT GOD'S NAME

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to curse, swear, conjure, lie or deceive by His name, but call upon Him in every time of need, and worship Him with prayer, praise and thanksgiving.

THE THIRD COMMANDMENT GOD'S DAY

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to despise His Word and the preaching of the Gospel, but deem it holy and willingly hear and learn it.

THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT OUR PARENTS AND SUPERIORS

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to despise nor displease our parents and superiors, but honor, serve, obey, love and esteem them.

THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT HUMAN LIFE

Thou shalt not kill.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to do our neighbor any bodily harm or injury, but rather assist and comfort him in danger and want.

THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT
PURITY, MARRIAGE

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as to be chaste and pure in our words and deeds, each one also loving and honoring his wife or her husband.

THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT
PROPERTY, HONESTY

Thou shalt not steal.

What is meant by this commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to rob our neighbor of his money or property, nor bring it into our possession by unfair dealing or fraudulent means, but rather assist him to improve and protect it.

THE EIGHTH COMMANDMENT
TRUTHFULNESS

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

What is meant by this commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not deceitfully to belie, betray, slander, nor raise injurious reports against our neighbor, but apologize for him, speak well of him, and put the most charitable construction on all his actions.

THE NINTH AND TENTH COMMANDMENTS
A RIGHT HEART

9th Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to desire by craftiness to gain possession of our neighbor's inheritance or home, or to obtain it under the pretext of a legal right; but be ready to assist and serve him in the preservation of his own.

10th Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to alienate our neighbor's wife from him, entice away his servants, nor let loose his cattle, but use our endeavors that they may remain and discharge their duty to him.

THE CONCLUSION OF THE COMMANDMENTS
PUNISHMENT OR BLESSING

What does God declare concerning these commandments?

He says: "I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments."

What is meant by this Declaration?

God threatens to punish all those who transgress these commandments; we should therefore dread His displeasure and not act contrarily to these commandments. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep them; we should therefore love and trust in him, and cheerfully do what he has commanded us.

The Apostles' Creed

THE FIRST ARTICLE
OF GOD THE FATHER, OR CREATION

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that God has created me and all that exists; that He has given and still preserves to me my body and soul, with all my limbs and senses, my reason and all the faculties of my mind, together with my raiment, food, home and family, and all my property: that He daily provides me abundantly with all the necessaries of life, protects me from all danger, and preserves me and guards me against all evil; all which He does out of pure, paternal and divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me; for all which I am in duty bound to thank, praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

SECOND ARTICLE OF GOD THE SON, OR REDEMPTION

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord; who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, secured and delivered me from all sins, from death and from the power of the devil, not with silver and gold, but with His holy and precious blood, and with His innocent sufferings and death, in order that I might be His, live under Him in His kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead and lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

THE THIRD ARTICLE
OF GOD THE HOLY GHOST, OR SANCTIFICATION

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the Body; and the Life Everlasting. Amen.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Ghost has called me through the Gospel, enlightened me by His gifts, and sanctified and preserved me in the true faith; in like manner as He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and preserves it in union with Jesus Christ in the true faith; in which Christian Church He daily forgives abundantly all my sins, and the sins of all believers, and will raise up me and all the dead at the last day, and will grant everlasting life to me and to all who believe in Christ. This is most certainly true.

The Lord's Prayer

INTRODUCTION

Our Father Who art in Heaven.

What is meant by this Introduction?

God would thereby affectionately encourage us to believe that He is truly our Father, and that we are His children indeed, so that we may call upon Him with all cheerfulness and confidence, even as beloved children entreat their affectionate parent.

THE FIRST PETITION

Hallowed be Thy name.

What is meant by this Petition?

The name of God is indeed holy in itself; but we pray in this petition that it may be hallowed also by us.

How is this effected?

When the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as the children of God, lead holy lives in accordance with it; to this may our blessed Father in heaven help us. But whoever teaches and lives otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, profanes the name of God among us; from this preserve us, heavenly Father.

THE SECOND PETITION

Thy kingdom come.

What is meant by this Petition?

The kingdom of God comes indeed of itself without our prayer; but we pray in this petition what it may come unto us also.

When is this effected?

When our heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His holy Word, and live a godly life here on earth and in heaven forever.

THE THIRD PETITION

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

What is meant by this Petition?

The good and gracious will of God is done, indeed, without our prayer, but we pray in this petition that it may be done by us also.

When is this effected?

When God frustrates and brings to nought every evil counsel and purpose which would hinder us from hallowing the name of God and prevent His kingdom from coming to us, such as the will of the devil, of the world, and of our own flesh; and when he strengthens us and keeps us steadfast in His Word and in the faith even unto our end. This is His gracious and good will.

THE FOURTH PETITION

Give us this day our daily bread.

What is meant by this Petition?

God gives, indeed, without our prayer, even to the wicked also, their daily bread; but we pray in this petition that He would make us sensible of His benefits, and enable us to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

What is implied in the words "our daily bread"?

All things that pertain to the wants and the support of this present life; such as food, raiment, money, goods, house and land, and other property; a believing spouse and good children; trustworthy servants and faithful magistrates; favorable seasons, peace and health; education and honor; true friends, good neighbors, and the like.

THE FIFTH PETITION

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

What is meant by this Petition?

We pray in this petition that our heavenly Father would not regard our sins, nor deny us our requests on account of them; for we are not worthy of anything for which we pray, and have not merited it; but that He would grant us all things through grace, although we daily commit much sin and deserve chastisement alone. We will, therefore, on our part both heartily forgive and also readily do good to those who may injure or offend us.

THE SIXTH PETITION

And lead us not into temptation.

What is meant by this Petition?

God, indeed, tempts no one to sin; but we pray in this petition that God would so guard and preserve us, that the devil, the world and our own flesh may not deceive us, nor lead us into error and unbelief, despair, and other great and shameful sins; and that, though we may be thus tempted, we may nevertheless finally prevail and gain the victory.

THE SEVENTH PETITION

But deliver us from evil.

What is meant by this Petition?

We pray in this petition, as in a summary, that our heavenly Father would deliver us from all manner of evil, whether it affect the body or the soul, property or character, and at last, when the hour of death shall arrive grant us a happy end, and graciously take us from this world of sorrow to Himself in heaven.

THE CONCLUSION

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

What is meant by the word "Amen"?

That I should be assured that such petitions are acceptable to our heavenly Father, and are heard by Him; for He Himself has commanded us to pray in this manner, and has promised that He will hear us. Amen, amen, that is, yea, yea, it shall be so. In this Conclusion we give the reason why we address our prayer to our heavenly Father, and why we expect to be heard. It contains a Doxology, and an Amen.

The Sacrament Of Holy Baptism

PART 1 OF BAPTISM

I. What is Baptism?

Baptism is not simply water, but it is the water comprehended in God's command and connected with God's Word.

What is that Word of God?

It is that which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as it is recorded in the last chapter of Matthew, verse 19: "Go ye, and teach (make disciples of) all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.

PART 2 OF BAPTISM

II. What gifts or benefits does Baptism confer?

It works forgiveness of sins, delivers from death and the devil, and confers everlasting salvation on all who believe, as the Word and promise of God declare.

What are such words and promises of God?

Those which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as they are recorded in the last chapter of Mark, verse 16: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

PART 3 OF BAPTISM

III. How can water produce such great effects?

It is not the water, indeed, that produces these effects, but the Word of God which accompanies and is connected with the water, and our faith which relies on the Word of God connected with the water. For the water without the Word of God is simply water, and no baptism. But when connected with the Word of God, it is a baptism, that is, a gracious water of life and a washing of regeneration in the Holy Ghost; as St. Paul says to Titus in the third chapter, verses 5-8: "According to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ, our Saviour; that being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. This is a faithful saying."

PART 4 OF BAPTISM

IV. What does such baptizing with water signify?

It signifies that the old Adam in us is to be drowned and destroyed by daily sorrow and repentance, together with all sins and evil lusts; and that again the new man should daily come forth and rise, that shall live in the presence of God in righteousness and purity forever.

Where is it so written?

St Paul, in the epistle to the Romans, chapter 6, verse 4, says: "We are buried with Christ by baptism into death; that like as He was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

The Sacrament of the Altar

PART 1 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

I. What is the Sacrament of the Altar?

It is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, under the bread and wine, given unto us Christians to eat and to drink, as it was instituted by Christ Himself.

Where is it so written?

The holy evangelists, Matthew, Mark, and Luke, together with St. Paul, write thus: "Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread: and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said, Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it: this cup is the New Testament in My blood, which is shed for you, for the remission of sins: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me."

PART 2 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

II. What benefits are derived from such eating and drinking?

They are pointed out in these words: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins"; namely, through these words, the remission of sins, life and salvation are granted unto us in the sacrament. For where there is remission of sins, there are also life and salvation.

PART 3 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

III. How can the bodily eating and drinking produce such great effects?

The eating and the drinking, indeed, do not produce them; but the words which stand here, namely, "given and shed for you for the remission of sins." These words are besides the bodily eating and drinking, the chief things in the sacrament; and he who believes these words has that which they declare and set forth; namely, the remission of sins.

PART 4 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

IV. Who is it that receives this sacrament worthily?

Fasting and bodily preparation are, indeed, a good external discipline; but he is truly worthy and well prepared who believes these words: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." But he who does not believe these words or who doubts, is unworthy and unfit; for the words "for you" require truly believing hearts.

INTRODUCTION

CHAPTER I

THE BIBLE

THE BIBLE is the inspired and unerring record of what God has revealed to men concerning Himself and the Way of Salvation. [II Tim. 3:16, Gal. 1:8] Hence, if we ask, "What must I do to be saved?" the answer to our question must be sought in the Bible. It tells us what to believe and what to do in order that we may belong to God's kingdom on earth and in heaven. [Matt. 6:33. Acts 16:30. John 5:39.] It is the only rule and standard of Christian faith and life.

WHY NEEDED. Even without the Bible, men know that there is a Higher Being. Their own conscience tells them that there is a God who will punish them if they do wrong; [Rom. 2:14, 15] and the works of nature proclaim that there is an Almighty Being who created them. [Ps. 19:1] But the knowledge of God which men gain from their own conscience and from nature is insufficient. Neither nature nor conscience can tell us anything about the Way of Salvation which God has prepared for us in Jesus Christ. It is only from the Bible that we can learn how we shall be saved.

ITS INSPIRATION. The Bible is the Word of God. It was written by holy men whom God inspired [II Pet. 1:21] It contains knowledge which no man could have discovered by his own power. It foretells events which no uninspired man could have foreseen. It contains teachings so exalted and holy that they could not have originated in the heart of man. It possesses a power such as no merely human book ever did or could possess. [Heb. 4:12]

ITS OBJECT is to make us wise unto salvation. [II Tim. 3:15, Prov. 9:10] It is to be a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path [Ps. 119:105] to guide us safely through this world to our heavenly home. It contains all that we need to know and all that we ever shall know in this world concerning God and his will. [Luke 16:31] It is the final and absolute authority in all matters of religion. We should therefore, pay most earnest heed to its teachings, believe them with all our heart, and apply them in our lives.

ITS CONTENTS

It consists of sixty-six "books," written between the years 1500 B.C. and 100 A.D. and contains the History and Doctrines of the Kingdom of God.

OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS

The Bible consists of two parts: The Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament reaches from Creation to about 400 B.C., and shows how God prepared the world for Christ's kingdom. The New Testament reaches from the birth of Christ to the end of the world, and shows how Christ came and established His kingdom.

LAW AND GOSPEL

The Bible contains Law, [Micah 6:8] telling us what we must do, and Gospel, [John 3:16] telling us how we are to be saved. The Old Testament contains principally Law, and the New Testament contains principally Gospel. But there are Law and Gospel in both. The Gospel in the Old Testament is prophetic. The Old Testament prepared the way for the New; the New Testament is the fulfillment of the Old. With the New Testament, God's revelation to men was completed; [Heb. 1:1,2, Heb. 2:1-3] no further revelation will be given.

THE BOOKS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

Historical

Genesis,
Exodus,
Leviticus, Numbers,
Deuteronomy,
Joshua,

Judges,
Ruth,
I Samuel,
II Samuel,
I Kings,
II Kings,

I Chronicles,
II Chronicles
Ezra,
Nehemiah,
Esther

Poetical

Job,
Psalms,

Proverbs,
Ecclesiastes,

Song of Solomon

Prophetical

Isaiah,
Jeremiah,
Lamentations,
Ezekiel,
Daniel,
Hosea,

Joel,
Amos,
Obadiah,
Jonah,
Micah,
Nahum,

Habakkuk,
Zephaniah,
Haggai,
Zechariah,
Malachi.

The historical books of the Old Testament give an account of the creation of the world and of man, of the entrance of sin and death, of God's covenant with Israel to save them, and of the history of Israel as God's chosen people.

The poetical books give the teachings of the Old Testament covenant in prayers, proverbs and hymns.

The prophetic books contain many instructions, admonitions and prophecies (especially concerning Christ who should come to save men) which God sent to the Israelites through the prophets. The first four prophets are called the Major Prophets; and the last twelve, the Minor Prophets.

THE BOOKS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Historical

Matthew,
Mark,

Luke,
John,

Acts

Didactical

Romans,
I Corinthians,
II Corinthians,
Galatians,
Ephesians,
Philippians,
Colossians,

I Thessalonians,
II Thessalonians,
I Timothy,
II Timothy,
Titus,
Philemon,
Hebrews,

James,
I Peter,
II Peter,
I John,
II John,
III John,
Jude

Prophetical

Revelation

The historical books of the New Testament give an account of the life of our Lord Jesus Christ and of some of His apostles.

The didactical books (the epistles or letters) explain the Gospel of Christ more fully, and show how we are to believe in Him aright and live aright.

The prophetical book tells in figurative language what shall take place in the Church of Christ up to the time when there shall be new heavens and a new earth.

CANONICAL BOOKS. The sixty-six books enumerated above are inspired, and are called the Canonical Books of the Old and New Testaments. The so-called Apocryphal Books, printed in some editions of the Bible, are not a part of the Bible; they are not inspired.

OUR ENGLISH BIBLE. The Old Testament was originally written in Hebrew, and the New Testament in Greek. Our English Bible is a translation from the Hebrew and the Greek. The English Bible which is in ordinary use is called the Authorized Version, or King James' Version. It is a translation made by a body of learned men and published in England in 1611, during the reign of James I. The Revised Version is an improved translation made by a body of learned men in England and America and published in 1881-1885. The Bible in whole or in part has been translated into a thousand or more languages and dialects.

QUESTIONS

1. What is the Bible?
2. What does it tell us?
3. Why do we need it?
4. Why do we say that the Bible is the Word of God?
5. What is its object?
6. What does it contain?

7. Of what two parts does the Bible consist, and how far do they reach?
8. What do we mean by Law and Gospel, and where are they found?
9. What is the relation between the Old and New Testaments?
10. Name the books of the Old Testament.
11. What do the historical, poetical and prophetic books of the Old Testament contain?
12. Name the books of the New Testament.
13. What do the historical, didactical and prophetic books of the New Testament contain?
14. How many canonical books of the Bible are there?
15. In what languages was the Bible originally written?
16. Tell what you know about the English bible?
17. Into how many languages has the Bible in whole or in part been translated?

SCRIPTURE VERSES FOR MEMORY.

CHAPTER II THE CATECHISM

THE OBJECT of catechetical instruction is to fit us for communicant membership in the Church. Those who were baptized in infancy are members of the Church; but they are not admitted to the Lord's Supper, and hence do not become communicant members, until they have been instructed and confirmed.

LUTHER'S SMALL CATECHISM is our text-book for catechetical instruction. It is not only the best book for this purpose, but is one of the Confessions of our Church, and should become our personal confession of faith. It is called Luther's Small Catechism, because Luther wrote a larger one also.

THE AUTHOR of our catechism was Dr. Martin Luther (b. 1483, d. 1546), the great Reformer, through whom God effected the Reformation of the Church in the sixteenth century. He began the Reformation with his Ninety-five Theses against the sale of indulgences, contended against the many errors and abuses that had crept into the Church, and preached and taught the pure truth of the Gospel until his death. (Ninety-five Theses, 1517; Translation of the Bible into German, 1522-34; Larger and Smaller Catechisms, 1529; Augsburg Confession adopted 1530.)

THE CATECHISM CONTAINS the principal teachings of the Bible,--those things which we need to know in order to be saved and to lead a right Christian life. [Acts 16:30. Matt. 6:33] It is not meant to displace the Bible, but to fit us to read and study the Bible with greater profit. [John 5:39]

THE FIVE PRINCIPAL PARTS of the catechism are

1. The Ten Commandments.
2. The Creed.
3. The Lord's Prayer.
4. The Sacrament of Holy Baptism.
5. The Sacrament of the Altar. *

To these are added Questions on Confession, Morning and Evening Prayers, Thanksgiving before and after Meat, and A Table of Duties. This can be found Luther's Small Catechism with Explanation # 22-3079 from Concordia Publishing House St. Louis Missouri. cph.org or 1-800-325-3040.

QUESTIONS

1. What is the object of catechetical instruction?
2. What is to be said about the relation of baptized children to the Church?
3. What is Luther's Small Catechism, and what should it become for us?
4. Who was the author of our Catechism?
5. What does our Catechism contain?
6. Name the five principal parts of the catechism, and the additions to them.

READING.

Paul confesses his Faith, Acts 26.

PART I THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

CHAPTER III THE LAW

The Ten Commandments are called the Moral Law, or more briefly the Law, and sometimes the Decalogue or the Ten Words. They make known to us God's will, which is the law for all His creatures. Each commandment has a negative side, and forbids something; each has also a positive side, and commands or enjoins something.

* Luther says that three things are necessary for every one who would be saved. Like a sick person,

1. He must know what his sickness is.
2. He must know where the medicine is which will cure him.
3. He must desire and seek the medicine, and have it brought to him. Our sickness (sin) is revealed to us by the Ten Commandments. The medicine (God's grace) is made known to us in the Creed. We seek and ask for it in the Lord's Prayer. It is brought to us in the Sacraments.

THE GIVING OF THE LAW The Law of God was originally written in man's heart at creation. [Rom. 2:14, 15] We call that law in the heart, Conscience. After the fall into sin, the conscience became darkened, and men did not always know right from wrong, and fell into gross idolatry. [Rom. 1: 21-23] God, therefore, through Moses at Mount Sinai, gave men His law anew, [Exod. 20:1. Deut. 5:6] written on two Tables of stone. [Exod. 31:18] He also gave the Israelites national and ceremonial laws. These, being meant for a particular people and a certain era of the world, are no longer binding upon us. But the Moral Law has been expressly confirmed by our Lord Jesus Christ as valid for all time and binding upon all men. [Matt. 22:37-40].

THE SUBSTANCE OF THE LAW is, "Thou shalt love the Lord Thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind" and "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

THE PURPOSE OF THE LAW is,

1. To put a check upon wicked men, [I Tim. 1:9]
2. To convince us of our sinfulness [Rom. 3:20] and our need of the Saviour, [Gal. 3:24] and
3. To be our rule and guide for Christian conduct. [John 14:15, Matt. 7:12] It is especially with respect to the second purpose here mentioned, that the Ten Commandments were assigned by Luther to the first and not to a later place in his catechism.

THE TWO TABLES. The Ten Commandments may be divided into two parts, called the Two Tables of the Law. [Exod. 31:18] The First Table includes the first three commandments, and teaches us our Duty to God. The Second Table includes the last seven commandments, and teaches us our Duty to our Fellow-men.†

1. What other names are given to the Ten Commandments?
2. What do they make known to us?
3. What two sides are there to each commandment?
4. Where was the law of God originally written?
5. Why and when was the Law given anew?
6. Why is the Moral Law binding upon us, while the national and ceremonial laws of Israel are not?
7. What is the substance of the Law?
8. What is the threefold purpose of the Law?
9. Into how many Tables is the Law divided, and what does each Table teach?
10. How many commandments does each Table include?

† The Ten Commandments are not numbered in the Bible. A two-fold numbering is found among Christians. The first is that which is given in our Catechism, and which is accepted by the majority of Christians. The other numbering makes two commandments of our first (the second being the command not to make any images), and joins our ninth and tenth into one. This makes a difference in the numbering of all the commandments except the first.

CHAPTER IV THE LAWGIVER

I am the Lord thy God.

THESE INTRODUCTORY WORDS show who is the Lawgiver. [Jas. 4:12] As earthly kings place their names at the beginning of their decrees to give them authority, so God places His name at the beginning of the commandments in order to make known who gives them, and whose displeasure we shall incur if we disobey them. These introductory words belong not only to the first but to all the commandments.

I AM. By these words God reminds us that He is a Person. He speaks to us. He is not an impersonal God who pervades and is a part of nature. He is above nature and has created it. [Gen. 1:1]

THE LORD. The word here translated "Lord" means in the original Hebrew "I AM THAT I AM." [Exod. 3:14] God thereby declares that He is the One and Only Self-existent, [Isa. 44:6] Eternal, [Ps. 90:1,2] and Unchangeable Being. [Mal. 3:6] He is the true and living God in contradistinction from all so-called gods. [Jer. 10:10] The name Jehovah or "Lord" is used in the Old Testament Scriptures to designate God as the covenant God of Israel. It signified that He stood in a specially near relation to them as His chosen people. The name has the same comforting meaning for Christians; for they are the New Testament people of God. [Tit. 2:14. I Pet. 2:9.]

THY GOD. These words express God's good-will toward us. He is our God who loves us and cares for us. [I Pet. 5:7] He said to Israel, "I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage." He has delivered us from the still greater bondage of sin, death, and the devil through His Son Jesus Christ, [Col. 1:13] and has a right to expect our gratitude and love.

THE LORD THY GOD. He who gives us these commandments is a Spirit [John 4:24] of infinite majesty and goodness.

He is:

1. Eternal; He always was and always will be. [Ps. 90:2]
2. Unchangeable; He always was and always will be the same. [Mal. 3:6]
3. Omnipresent; He is present everywhere at the same time and all the time. [Ps. 139:7-11]
4. Omniscient; He knows all the past, present, and future, and is acquainted with every thought, desire, and purpose of our hearts. [Ps. 139:2]
5. Omnipotent, or Almighty; He is able to do all things which He wills to do. [Luke 1:37]
6. Holy; He is perfectly pure, and separate from all that is evil. [Isa. 6:3]
7. Just; He will bless those who keep His law, and punish those who break it. [Rom. 2:6]
8. All-wise; He always knows what is the best thing to do, and the best way to do it.

[Col. 2:3]

9. Good; He is Love itself. [I John 4:8] He is kind even to the unthankful, [Matt. 5:45] merciful to the penitent soul for Jesus' sake and longsuffering toward the impenitent in order to lead them to repentance by His goodness.

10. Faithful and True; He can be absolutely relied upon to do all that He has promised or threatened.

Because of the Majesty and goodness of the Lord our God, we should FEAR and LOVE HIM, and KEEP His commandments.

THE FIRST TABLE OF THE LAW OUR DUTY TO GOD

"Thou shalt love the Lord Thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy soul." [Matt. 22:37]

CHAPTER V THE FIRST COMMANDMENT GOD

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should fear, love and trust in God above all things.

THE GREAT COMMANDMENT.

This is the great commandment of the Law, because it includes all the rest. [Matt. 22:37,28] Obedience to all the commandments must proceed from the love of God which the first commandment requires. [Rom. 13:9, 10 Ps. 135:15-17, Isa. 42:8, Rom. 1:21-23] Hence the explanation of the other nine begins with the words, "We should so fear and love God."

This Commandment forbids us to worship false gods, and commands us to worship the true God by fearing, loving and trusting in Him above all things.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN

1. ALL IDOLATRY. "Thou shalt have no other gods." Idolatry is committed by all who put anything in God's place, the highest place in the heart. "Whatever we set our heart upon is our god."

Open Idolatry [Exod. 32:1-8] is committed by those who worship imaginary beings, the sun, moon, or stars, animals, dead ancestors, idols made with hands, images,[‡] pictures, the Virgin Mary, saints, angels, the devil, or any other creature.

Secret Idolatry is committed by all who put:

(a) Self, [Prov. 3:5,6. Jer. 9:23,24]

(b) Fellow-men [Acts 5:29. Matt. 10:28. Matt. 10:37, Ps. 146:3-5.] OR

(c) Objects of this world [I John 2:15-17] (money, fame, business, pleasure, etc.) above God, by fearing, loving, or trusting in them more than in God.

2. GODLESSNESS. [I Sam. 2:30. Ps. 10:4] Neglect to worship the true God, unbelief, skepticism, superstition, infidelity, and atheism are a transgression of this commandment.

3. DOUBLE SERVICE. [] Matt. 6:24] God forbids us to have other gods before or besides Him. He demands our whole heart.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED

We should give God the highest place in our hearts, and "fear, love and trust in Him above all things." [Matt. 4:10]

We should Fear God above All Things. We should be more afraid of His anger than of anything else in the whole world. [Gen. 29:9. Ps. 33:8,9] Rather than disobey Him, we should be willing to suffer ridicule, persecution, loss of money, property, position, or friends, and even death itself. [Matt. 10:28. Acts 5:29.]

Why We should fear God above all things:

1. Because He is omniscient, and we cannot hide anything from Him, not even our thoughts. [Ps. 139:1,2]
2. Because He is holy, and hates everything that is evil. [Lev. 19:2]
3. Because He is just, and will punish every sin. [Ps. 5:4]

How

As Christians, our fear of God should be a child-like and not a slavish fear. Child-like fear is fear mingled with love. We should refrain from evil not simply from fear of punishment, but from fear of offending the God whom we love. [Rom. 8:15] "Slavish fear is afraid God will come; child-like fear is afraid He will go away."

We should Love God above All Things, "with all our heart, and with all our mind and with all our soul." [Matt. 22:37] Our first aim and our highest delight should always be to do God's will. [I John 5:3]. We should be far more anxious to please Him than to please ourselves or any of our fellowmen. We should love

[‡] When God gave the commandments to Israel, He forbade them to make any graven images or likenesses. God being a Spirit, the making of an image of God would at that period necessarily have resulted in idolatry. But since Christ has come in the flesh and was visible among men, we are permitted to make pictures and images of Him. Luther preached very forcibly against those persons who, during his absence from Wittenberg, destroyed the pictures and images in the churches. He said that we make a picture of Christ in our heart whenever we think of Him, and put pictures of Him in the Bible and other books; and that therefore it is not wrong to place pictures or images of Him in our churches so long as we do not worship them.

Him far more than we love any one else [Matt. 10:37] (parents, brothers, sisters, friends, etc.), or any earthly objects [I John 2:15] (money, pleasure, business and the like).

Why we should love God above all things;

1. Because He is most worthy of our love. [Ps. 73:25,26]
2. Because He first loved us, [I John 4:19. I John 4:9.] and gave His Son to die for us.
3. Because our highest happiness is found in loving Him.

How we should show our Love

We should show that we love God above all things;

1. By leading a godly life. [II John 6]
2. By loving the things of God, especially the Church and the Gospel. [John 8:47]
3. By loving our fellow-men for His sake. [I John 4:20]

We should Trust in God above All Things. We should rely with all our heart upon His love and care, [Prov. 3:5] placing our chief dependence on Him, and not on our own wisdom, skill, or strength, or upon men, money, etc.

Why

We should trust in God with all our heart Because;

1. He loves US. [Rom. 8:32]
2. He knows all our wants. [Matt. 6:32]
3. He knows what is best for us.
4. He is able to do all things.
5. He has promised to care for us. [Heb. 13:5 Isa. 54:10, Isa. 41:10]

How we should show our Trust

If we trust in God above all things we will show that trust,

1. By freedom from unbelieving care and worry. [Matt. 6:25, I Pet. 5:7]
2. By reliance upon God's help and protection at all times. [Ps. 33,18,19]
3. By committing the entire ordering of our lives to Him. [Ps. 37:5]

We have all broken this first commandment: for we have not always and everywhere feared, loved and trusted in God above all things.

CHAPTER VI

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT

GOD'S NAME

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to curse, swear, conjure, lie or deceive by His name, but call upon Him in every time of need, and worship Him with prayer, praise and thanksgiving.

THE NAME OF GOD

A name is that by which we know a person. God's name means all by which He is known to us; hence not only the words God, Lord, Jehovah, Jesus Christ, the Almighty, the Eternal, the Omniscient One, etc., but the Word of God and the Sacraments, and all holy things.

This Commandment forbids the wrong use, and commands the right use of God's holy name.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN TAKING GOD'S NAME IN VAIN

Thoughtlessly

God's name is taken in vain thoughtlessly by using it as an exclamation in our conversation, by reading or hearing God's Word without devotion, jesting about sacred things, quoting Scripture in fun, and the like. Thoughtlessness is no excuse. We must give an account to God for every idle word; [Matt. 12:36] how much more for every vain use of His name.

Intentionally

This is done by those who:

Curse; [Jas. 3:9,10, Matt. 5:44, Rom. 12:14] that is, by those who call on God to do evil to themselves or to others. Disguised forms of cursing are sinful also.

Swear. We are forbidden to confirm what we say by the use of God's name, either needlessly [Matt. 5:34-37] in our ordinary conversation, or Falsely [Lev. 19:12] before a magistrate.

There is a Legal Oath: [Deut. 6:13, Heb. 6:16]

1. Of Witness.
2. Of innocence.
3. Of Allegiance.
4. Of Office. The oath taken by our Lord before the high priest shows that the oath before a magistrate is not forbidden. [Matt. 26:63, 64] When taking a legal oath, we must be careful to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. False swearing or perjury is a great sin. It is punished by the State, and will be punished by God. [Ezek. 17:19]

Swearing by anything beside God's name is forbidden also. [Matt. 5:34-37]

Conjure. [Deut. 18:10-12] This commandment forbids all magic arts, witchcraft, sorcery, fortune-telling, and all attempts by signs or formulas to discover what God has kept hidden or to attain what He has withheld. If results are obtained by such means, that is no justification for their use. [Matt. 16:26] If we desire to obtain help through the use of God's name, we must pray and not conjure.

Lie. The eighth commandment forbids lying in general; this commandment forbids lying by God's name. It is broken by those who teach falsehood and error and yet declare that they are teaching God's Word. [Gal. 1:8]

Deceive by His Name. This is done by those who assume Christ's name by calling themselves Christians, and yet are hypocrites, and use religion as a cloak. [2 Tim. 3:5, Matt. 15:8]

Sins against this Second Commandment are common, but not small sins. God will not hold him guiltless who commits them.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED

We should:

Call upon Him. God has given us His name so that we might call upon Him for His help and grace. [Ps. 145:18]

In Every Time of Need. We should call upon God in every time of trouble, danger or distress. [Ps. 50:15] But if we call upon God only in times of special need, and do not call upon His name at other times also, we are not keeping this commandment.

And Worship Him [Col. 3:16] in our hearts, in our homes and in church,

With Prayer [Matt. 7:7] for ourselves and for others, [I Tim. 2:1,2]

Praise [Ps. 145:1] for His majesty and glory and wonderful works, and Thanksgiving for temporal and spiritual blessings. [Ps. 106:1]

CHAPTER VII THE THIRD COMMANDMENT GOD'S DAY

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to despise His Word and the preaching of the Gospel, but deem it holy and willingly hear and learn it.

THE LORD'S DAY

Under the Old Testament the Israelites, by God's command, observed the seventh day of the week, Saturday, as the Sabbath or day of rest, because God rested from the work of Creation on the seventh day. [Gen. 2:2,3] For the Christians all days are holy. [Rom. 14:5,6, Col. 2:16, Acts 2:46] But from the earliest times the Christian Church set apart Sunday as a special day of worship, [Acts 20:7, I Cor. 16:3] because it is the day on which Christ rose from the dead. The Sabbath of the Old Testament commemorated the completion of Creation; the Lord's Day of the New Testament commemorates the completion of Redemption.

A HOLY DAY

The Lord's Day is to be kept holy by devoting it to holy things. It is to be a day of rest in order that it may be a day of worship. Any unnecessary work or any recreation which hinders us from hearing and profiting by God's Word is sinful.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN

We are not

To despise God's Word and the Preaching of the Gospel, [Luke 10:16]

By

1. Making light of God's Word, or regarding and treating it as the word of man.
2. Neglecting to go to church, and pleading poor excuses for absence. [Heb. 10:25]
3. Inattention and lack of devotion in church. [Eccl. 5:1]
4. Filling the mind with worldly things on Sunday (business, pleasure, Sunday-newspapers, etc.), so that God's Word cannot be rightly received into the heart. [Luke 8:5,12]
5. Making Sunday a holiday, lounging-day, or pleasure-day.
6. Making it a working-day, and thus preventing attendance at church.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED

We are to deem God's Word holy, and willingly hear and learn it, by

1. Regarding it as God's voice speaking to us. [I Thess. 2:13]
2. Going to church gladly and regularly. [Ps. 122:1,2]

3. Listening attentively and devoutly to God's Word, and joining heartily in the service.

[Luke 11:28, Col. 3:16, Jas. 1:21,22., Rom. 10:17.]

4. Attending Sunday-school and learning our lessons.

5. Teaching in Sunday-school when we have become old enough and our services are needed.

6. Reading the Bible and good books.

7. Doing whatever promotes the worship and honoring of God by ourselves or by others. [Jas. 1:27]

A DAY OF REST

Sunday is meant for the good of the soul. But a rest on one day out of seven is necessary also for the welfare of the body. Sunday is a blessed privilege for body, mind, and soul. Sometimes, however, both the rest for body and mind and attendance at church must be sacrificed in order to perform works of mercy as a duty to our fellow-men.

THE CHURCH-YEAR

The Church has also arranged a Church-year for the commemoration of the principal events in the Savior's life. The order of the Church-year is as follows: Four Sundays in Advent, Christmas, New Year, Epiphany (January 6), from two to six Sundays after Epiphany (according as Easter comes early or late); three Sundays called Septuagesima, Sexagesima, Quinquagesima; Ash Wednesday (the first day in Lent), six Sundays in Lent (the sixth being Palm Sunday), Holy Week (including Good Friday), Easter, five Sundays after Easter, Ascension Day, Sunday after Ascension, Pentecost or Whitsunday, Trinity Sunday; and from twenty-three to twenty-seven Sundays after Trinity. The Lutheran Church observes also the Festival of the Reformation on the 31st day of October. Each Sunday and Festival Day has its own Gospel and Epistle lesson, as well as its own Introit and Collect.

THE SECOND TABLE OF THE LAW OUR DUTY TO OUR FELLOW-MEN

"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." [Matt. 22:39]

OUR NEIGHBOR means every one. We are to love all men as we love ourselves; [Matt. 7:12] not only our relatives, friends, and acquaintances, but strangers, enemies, and people of all nations and climes. We must be ready to do good to all who are in need of our help and kindness. Compare the Parable of the Good Samaritan. [Luke 10:30-37]

CHAPTER VIII THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT OUR PARENTS AND SUPERIORS

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to despise nor displease our parents and superiors, but honor, serve, obey, love and esteem them.

PARENTS are God's representatives in the family for the maintenance of law and order in it. They are charged by God with the care and training of their children, and are clothed by Him with authority over them. Their will is law for their children, so long as it does not conflict with the law of God.

SUPERIORS are those who are placed over us in a position of authority in the Family, Church, School, or State; e.g., guardians, step-parents, grand-parents, pastors, teachers, rulers, etc. They also are to be honored and obeyed as such. In every case of a conflict of authority, we must "obey God rather than men." [Acts 5:29]

This commandment Forbids us to despise or displease our parents and superiors, and commands us to honor, serve, obey, love, and esteem them.

OUR DUTY TO OUR PARENTS, GRAND PARENTS, GUARDIANS, ETC.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN

We must not Despise them, mock at them, [Prov. 30:17] make light of them, think ourselves wiser or above their authority, nor speak disrespectfully of them or to them. [Deut. 27:16]

We must not Displease them by lack of affection, grumbling, disobedience, stubbornness, rebelliousness, or wickedness. [Exod. 21:15]

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED

We should

Honor them as those who are placed over us by God's appointment, look up to them, and always treat them with the proper respect [Lev. 19:3, Eph. 6:2,3] and consideration.

Serve them, be helpful to them, lighten their burdens, and anticipate their wishes. [I Tim. 5:4]

Obey them by cheerfully and promptly doing their will, even when it is not to our liking. [Eph. 5:1, Col. 3:20, Prov. 1:8.]

Love them, and show our love by a constant desire and effort to please them. We should call to mind what they have done and still do for us, that our love for them may grow deep and tender. [John 19:26,27]

Esteem them. We should regard and appreciate them as a precious gift of God. Children who have lost father or mother have met with a great loss.

IN LATER YEARS. We should honor, love and obey our parents while we are young; and we should still love and honor them when we are older. We must not despise or be ashamed of them if we happen to rise to a higher position in life than they. When they have grown old and feeble, we should care tenderly for them; and after they are dead, we should treasure their memory.

OUR DUTY TO OUR SUPERIORS

THE PASTOR is to be honored for the sake of the office which he holds. He is the ambassador of Christ; [II Cor. 5:20] and when he preaches the Gospel, or speaks words of admonition and counsel in private, the Saviour speaks through him. Those who hear him hear Christ; those who despise him despise Christ. [Luke 10:16] We should heed his admonitions, [I Heb. 13:17, I Thess. 5:12,13] and, as far as we are able, help and encourage him in his work.

OUR TEACHERS in Sunday-school and in other schools are placed over us in a position of authority, and must therefore be respected and honored.

RULERS AND THE GOVERNMENT. The State is God's servant to regulate temporal affairs and to maintain law and order in the land. Rulers and officials of the government must be respected and honored. [Matt. 22:21, Rom. 13:1-4] Christians must be good citizens. They must always obey the law, so long as it does not conflict with the law of God. [I Pet. 2:13, Acts 5:29] They should be patriotic, pray for their country, be ready to defend it, pay their taxes, and be concerned that it shall be a Christian land. Every voter shares in the responsibility of securing righteous government, and should cast his vote conscientiously.

OLD PERSONS in general are to be treated with respect and honor. [Lev. 19:32]

A special blessing is promised to those who keep this commandment.

CHAPTER IX THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT HUMAN LIFE

Thou shalt not kill.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to do our neighbor any bodily harm or injury, but rather assist and comfort him in danger and want.

HUMAN LIFE is sacred. It is man's most precious earthly possession; for without it he cannot enjoy any other. This commandment is meant to guard it. We dare not shorten another person's life, nor our own. God gives life, and He alone has the right to take it away.

This commandment forbids us to kill or injure other persons or ourselves. It commands us to assist and comfort our neighbor in danger and want.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN

We must not

1. Kill or injure other persons.

Murder To destroy any human life, even if it be very young or yet unborn, is a great crime. He who commits murder is to be punished with death. [Gen. 9:6] Among the motives which prompt to murder are anger, hatred, [Gen. 4:1-8] envy, [Gen. 37] jealousy, revenge, [Matt. 14:3-11] frivolity, avarice, robbery, and a desire to hide past sin. [II Sam. 11] We must be on our guard against all that would ever tempt us to this great crime.

Abortion: To take the life of the unborn. They are human beings from the time of conception. (Please note added by Pastor Roepke)

Euthanasia: To actively end the life of the old. Infirm, handicapped etc is to shed innocent blood and is thus contrary to God's will. (Please note added by Pastor Roepke)

Duels. It is foolish as well as sinful to pretend to establish the right or wrong of a question by a duel.

Unjust Wars are wholesale murder. Rulers must do all that they honorably can to prevent war. Yet as a last resort to maintain the right, war is justifiable.

Hatred is murder in the heart. "He that hateth his brother is a murderer." [I John 3:15, Matt. 5:21,22]

Tempting Others to useless risks in which they may perish or be injured, or to drunkenness, dissipation, etc., which will shorten their life, is a transgression of this commandment.

Causing Accidents by neglect, carelessness or bad workmanship, or

Shortening Other People's Lives [Gen. 37:31-35] by maltreatment, overwork, worry, etc., makes men guilty of sin against this commandment.

Neglect to Warn others of impending danger or neglect to assist them in need may result in their injury or death.

The law recognizes our right to defend our life when it is unjustly assailed. But killing others in self-defense must be our last resort. Many persons act hastily. The official who inflicts the death penalty on condemned criminals is not guilty of wrong, but is doing his duty as an officer of the State. [Rom. 13:4]

It is a sin to kill our neighbor's soul by tempting him to sin, or enticing him to wrong-doing by our evil example.

2. Kill or injure ourselves.

Suicide is often prompted by despair, remorse, [Matt. 27:5] cowardice, recklessness, or insanity. But it is sinful as well as foolish and cowardly. He who commits it robs himself of the opportunity to repent, and leaves others to bear the burdens from which he shrank. If we are tempted to despair, we should not commit suicide, but seek comfort and strength in God's Word. If we have fallen into disgrace by sin, we should repent and lead a better life.

A Life of Sin Impurity, drunkenness, gluttony, or dissipation will shorten our life, and make us die before our allotted time.

Disregard of the Laws of Health, overwork, needless exposure, carelessness, violent anger, needless worry, are all forbidden by this commandment.

The voluntary sacrifice of our life for truth and right (martyrdom), or in defense of our country, or in an effort to rescue and save others, is not only justifiable but noble. [I John 3:16]

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED

We should

Assist and Comfort Our Neighbor. [Gal. 6:10, Luke 10:30-35, Matt. 5:7, Matt. 5:44, Rom. 12:20, Matt. 7:12, Prov. 24:17]

1. In Danger. We should Warn him of danger. Defend and rescue him. Ward off danger from him. Save him from worry and anxiety whenever we can.

2. In Want. We should Aid the poor and destitute. Minister to the sick. Comfort the afflicted and distressed. Give to organized charities: orphanages, asylums, hospitals, rescue-work, etc. Give to missions in order to save souls.

CHAPTER X THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT PURITY, MARRIAGE

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as to be chaste and pure in our words and deeds, each one also loving and honoring his wife or her husband.

This commandment is meant to preserve our personal purity, and to guard the holy estate of marriage. It forbids adultery and all impurity. It commands chastity and purity in thought, word, and deed.

I. PURITY

We should be Chaste and Pure

In Heart We should keep our heart free from impure thoughts and desires. [Matt. 5:8, Prov. 4:23, Ps. 51:10] God judges us by the state of our heart. [I Sam. 16:7] Unchaste thoughts must not be delighted in nor harbored, but subdued and stamped out. They poison the soul. They are themselves a transgression of this commandment, [Matt. 5:28] and they lead to further transgressions of it by word and deed.

In Words. We must avoid immodest conversation, unchaste words, vile stories, and shameless jests. [Eph. 5:3-4, Eph. 4:29] such things are not smart, as many think, but vile and despicable. We should never take part in nor listen to a conversation which we would be ashamed to have overheard by persons whom we respect.

In Deeds. We should carefully avoid every act which would bring the blush of shame to our cheeks if it were known to our parents or others whose opinion we cherish. Our bodies are to be God's temple, [I Cor. 6:19,20] and they dare not be given over to sin and impurity. [Rom. 6:13] We should remember that God sees even in secret, and knows all our actions. [Ps. 139:1-12]

Impurity of heart and life will not go unpunished. [I Cor. 3:16,17, Gal. 5:19-21] It is often followed by the most dreadful consequences: a ruined body, an enfeebled mind, a poisoned soul, a tortured conscience, public shame, dreadful disease and an untimely death.

To Keep ourselves Pure we should watch and pray, [Matt. 26:41] avoid idleness, evil company, bad books and papers, indecent songs and pictures, immoral plays, intemperance in eating and drinking, and all that would incite to impurity. We should keep our minds occupied with good thoughts and desires, so that we have no room for evil ones. [Rom. 13:14]

II. MARRIAGE

Marriage is the union of one man and one woman for life in the bonds of love and faithfulness.

A Holy Estate Marriage was instituted by God in Eden, [Gen. 2:18] and was sanctioned by Christ, who performed His first miracle at a wedding. [John 2:1-11] It is a holy estate. Celibacy is not a holier estate than marriage, as the Roman Catholic Church maintains. [I Tim. 4:1-3]

Indissoluble The marriage tie is binding until one of the married persons dies. [Matt. 19:6] Except by death, the marriage relation cannot be broken or dissolved without sin against this sixth commandment. [Matt. 5:32, Matt. 19:9] If one party to the marriage is guilty of adultery, the innocent party may obtain a divorce. No other divorces are allowed by Christ.

An Important Step. Marriage is the most important step in life. It must not be entered into hastily or thoughtlessly. If a mistake is made in the choice of a partner for life, the mistake can never be remedied. Those who contemplate such a step should pray for God's guidance. Marriage should not be entered upon for money, social advantages, and the like, but for love. Parents should be consulted. While marriage by a civil magistrate is valid, Christians should seek God's blessing upon their union and be married by His ordained servant. The laws of the State must be carefully obeyed. Marriage between near relatives is forbidden by God's Word. [Lev. 18] Those who are married should, if possible, be of the same faith. Marriages between Protestants and Roman Catholics are seldom happy.

Duty of Husband [Eph. 5:25, Col 3:1] and Wife. [Eph. 5:22, Col. 3:18] Each should love and honor his wife or her husband. The man is the head of the family, but he must not be a tyrant. The wife is not his slave, but his dearest companion. They are no longer two but one, with a common love, a common life, a common property, common children, common hopes and aspirations, and a common Saviour. [I Pet. 3:7, I Pet. 3:1] They should be patient with one another's faults, just to one another's virtues, and should unselfishly seek one another's happiness. They should live together in mutual love and faithfulness till separated by death. only when husband and wife continue to love and honor one another can they be happy. The breaking of the marriage covenant is followed by shame and misery.

Please note that same sex-marriage, homosexuality, bisexuality and transgenderism are sin against the word and commands of God and is incompatible with the Christian life. It is equal to other sexual sins such as living together, pornography etc.. {Please note added by Pastor Roepke}

CHAPTER XI

THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT PROPERTY, HONESTY

Thou shalt not steal.

What is meant by this commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to rob our neighbor of his money or property, nor bring it into our possession by unfair dealing or fraudulent means, but rather assist him to improve and protect it.

THE OBJECT of this commandment is to protect every man in the possession of that which is lawfully his own. Without such protection the individual could not support his life, and society could not exist. The industrious and thrifty would be at the mercy of the lazy and wicked. This commandment forbids us to use dishonest means of acquiring property. It commands us to assist our neighbor to improve and protect his own.

PROPERTY consists of whatever each person lawfully acquires of the earth's lands, forests, water, mines, houses, goods or money. It may be rightfully acquired by original claim, inheritance, gift, or labor of body or mind. Honest labor united with economy is the best way to acquire it.

UNEQUAL DIVISION. God, who is the absolute owner of all things, [I Cor. 10:26] divides to each as He will. [Jer. 27:5] He "maketh poor and maketh rich." [I Sam. 2:7, Prov. 22:2] Much poverty, however, is due to men's own laziness, idleness, [II Thess. 3:10] carelessness or extravagance; and much wealth has been wrongfully gained contrary to God's will as expressed in this commandment.

Communism, or the equal division of property among all men is not practicable. It failed in the apostolic Church . [Acts 5:1-10] If all things were equally divided, some would soon clamor for another division.

POVERTY AND RICHES. The happiest person is he who is neither rich nor poor, but has sufficient for his needs. [Prov. 30:7-9, Prov. 15:16-17] Poverty may tempt a man to dishonesty; and riches may lead him to avarice, hardness of heart, worldliness and extravagance. [I Tim. 6:9,10, I Tim 6:17] Riches make it hard for a man to enter into the kingdom of God. [Matt. 19:24, Matt. 13:22] We should respect men for what they are, and not for what they have. We should not flatter the rich nor despise the poor. [Jas. 2:1-4]

USE OF PROPERTY. God entrusts earthly property to us as His stewards. [Luke 19:12-27, Matt. 25:14-30, Luke 16:1-8] Whether we are rich or poor, we should so use our property as to be able to give an account to God.

For ourselves and those dependent on us [I Tim. 5:8] we should use it for the supply of our bodily needs (food, clothing, shelter, a reasonable amount of pleasure) and of our spiritual needs [Luke 12:15, Matt. 6:33, I Cor. 9:14] (the Church and the Gospel).

For our fellowmen we should, when necessary, use it according to our ability for their bodily needs (the poor) and their spiritual needs (Home and Foreign Missions). [Matt. 22:39]

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN

1. Robbing our Neighbor. The grossest forms of dishonesty are Robbery, Theft, Burglary, Embezzlement, and Forgery. These are recognized by all as wrong. But it is also wrong to bring our neighbor's property into our possession by

2. Unfair Dealing and Fraudulent Means, [Prov. 29:24, Lev. 6:2,3, Ps 37:21, Jer. 22:13, Lev. 19:35,26, Hab. 2:6, Prov. 15:6, Deut. 24:14, Jas. 5:4, Prov. 11:1] such as Concealing stolen property, Withholding lost or borrowed property, Evading taxes, Refusing to pay debts, Willful idleness and beggary, Betting and gambling, Lotteries and chancing, Bribery, Useless lawsuits, Negligent management of another's property, Stealing car-rides, Unfaithful labor, Insufficient wages, Cornering the market, Overcharging, Usury, Adulterating good, Giving short weight or measure, and Cheating of any kind.

3. Dishonesty in the Heart. Dishonesty has its source in the covetousness and greed of the human heart. [Mic. 2:2] Men first covet, and then steal or defraud. We must beware of covetousness. [Luke 12:15] The love of money is a root of all evil. [I Tim. 6:10] We must be honest even in small matters. He who is dishonest in little will be dishonest in much. [Luke 16:10] We must avoid all that would tempt us to dishonesty; namely, evil companions, idleness, speculation, extravagance, etc.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED

We should

1. Assist our Neighbor to Improve and Protect his Property. [Exod. 23:4,5, Matt. 7:12.] We should help him to get along well in the world, and do what we can to prevent him from being deprived of his possessions.
2. Restore to the real owner whatever has been dishonestly gotten. [Luke 19:8]
3. Be Ready to use our money and property in order to help and benefit our neighbor. [Eph. 4:28, Heb. 13:16, I Pet. 4:10] We must be helpful and charitable toward our fellow-men.

CHAPTER XII
TRUTHFULNESS

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

What is meant by this commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not deceitfully to belie, betray, slander, nor raise injurious reports against our neighbor, but apologize for him, speak well of him, and put the most charitable construction on all his actions.

THE OBJECT of this commandment is to secure truthfulness, [Eph. 4:25] and to guard our good name. [Prov. 22:1] Without truthfulness we could not believe anything we heard, and the utmost confusion would prevail in the affairs of men. A good name is one of our most precious earthly possessions.

This commandment forbids all lying. It commands perfect truthfulness and a charitable judgment of others.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN

ALL LYING is forbidden. [Ps. 34:13] False witness against other persons is the worst form of lying. All lesser forms of lying are forbidden along with the greater.

1. False Witness against our Neighbor. We must not tell a falsehood about another person either in court or in every-day life. We must not belie him, that is, tell an untruth about him.

Betray. [Prov. 11:13, Prov. 24:28] We must not abuse our neighbor's confidence by revealing his innocent secrets, and thus annoying or harming him. One who pretends to be another's friend, and yet betrays him, is acting a lie. We dare not, however, hide crime; and we must tell what we know about others if the court, or parents, or persons who have a right to know, inquire of us.

Slander nor Raise Injurious Reports. [Exod. 23:1, Lev. 19:16, Ps. 15:1-3] We must not invent nor repeat false reports concerning our neighbor. We must not say behind his back what we fear to say to his face. We must not magnify his faults, [Matt. 7:3-5] nor impute evil motives to him, nor make his words and conduct look as bad as possible. The slanderer is worse than a thief and causes incalculable suffering and misery. [Prov. 25:18, Jas. 3:5-8] We should remember that words once spoken live on for good or evil, and cannot be unsaid; and that we must give an account to God for every word we speak. [Matt. 12:36]

2. Lying of Any Kind. A lie is a conscious falsehood uttered with the purpose of deceiving. It may be acted as well as spoken. [Prov. 6:13] We must not deceive nor try to deceive others by telling an untruth, by hiding the truth or a part of it, by hypocrisy, flattery, boasting, broken promises, conventional lies, "white lies," "lies of necessity," guesses given as facts, etc.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED

1. Truthfulness. Truth is of God; [Deut. 32:4] lying is of the devil. [John 8:44] As children of God we must be truthful. [Col. 3:9] A liar is an abomination in God's sight. [Prov. 12:22, Prov. 17:15] If necessary, we should be ready to suffer and die for the truth.

2. A Charitable Judgment of Others. We should Apologize for our Neighbor, and defend him when his character is unjustly assailed. [Matt. 7:12, Prov. 31:8,9] We must be careful, however, not to excuse or make light of sin. [Isa. 5:20]

We should

Speak well of him whenever we can do so truthfully. We should speak of his virtues rather than of his faults. [Matt. 7:1,2, Jas. 4:11] If we cannot speak well of him, then, unless it is absolutely necessary, we had better not speak of him at all. We should Put the most Charitable Construction on all his Actions. [I Pet. 4:8, I Cor. 13:4-7, Gal. 6:1] We should, as far as possible, make the best and not the worst of what our neighbor says and does. We should think and speak of him only in kindness.

CHAPTER XIII
A RIGHT HEART

9th Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to desire by craftiness to gain possession of our neighbor's inheritance or home, or to obtain it under the pretext of a legal right; but be ready to assist and serve him in the preservation of his own.

10th Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to alienate our neighbor's wife from him, entice away his servants, nor let loose his cattle, but use our endeavors that they may remain and discharge their duty to him.

Both these commandments forbid coveting; hence, we may consider them together. They deal with the root and source of all sin; namely, the evil lusts and desires of the heart. [Matt. 15:19, Jas. 1:14,15]

THE OBJECT of these two commandments is to emphasize the necessity of a right state of heart. [1 Sam. 16:7, Matt. 5:5] All the commandments must, indeed, be kept in thought as well as in word and deed. But by adding these two special commandments against coveting, God desires to impress upon us most strongly that wrong thoughts and desires make us guilty before Him. We are not keeping God's commandments unless we are free from the desire to transgress them. As a man "thinketh in his heart, so is he." [Prov. 23:7]

THE HEART BY NATURE SINFUL. We are born with a sinful nature and a natural inclination to evil (Original sin), which we have inherited from our ancestors as a result of the fall into sin. [John 3:6, Jer. 17:9] This natural inclination to evil manifests itself in wrong thoughts and desires which arise in the heart. [Rom. 7:18,19] These wrong desires or lusts are in themselves sinful: and if they are not subdued, they lead to sins of words and deeds. [Jas. 1:14,15]

These commandments forbid us to covet anything that is our neighbor's. They command us to assist and serve him in retaining his own.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN

COVETING. To covet means to desire what we have no right to have. To wish to obtain something in a lawful way is not coveting.

But we must not have

1. An Unlawful Desire [Gal. 5:24] for our neighbor's possessions, whether it be his property, wife, servants, cattle, or anything that is his. We must not envy him on account of them, nor begrudge them to him, nor wish that we had them in his stead. We must not make

2. Any Attempt to Gratify such Unlawful Desires and to gain possession of our neighbor's inheritance or home

By Craftiness, shrewdness, cunning, deceit and the like. [Prov. 15:6] Nor dare we seek to obtain it

Under the Pretext of a Legal Right; that is, by ways which human laws allow and appear to sanction, but which are not right before God. [Matt. 23:14] Nor dare we attempt to Alienate (estrangle), entice or drive away from him his wife, servants, or cattle, by persuasion, flattery, falsehood, promises, threats, or force.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED ASSISTANCE AND SERVICE.

We should

1. Assist and Serve him in the Preservation of his Own. [Phil. 2:4, Gal. 5:12] Instead of wishing to get his property away from him, we should most heartily wish that he may be able to keep it, and should help him to retain it. We should

2. Use our Endeavors that they who belong to him may remain and discharge their duty to him. We should help him to retain their affection and faithfulness. We should heartily wish them to remain, and persuade them to do so.

QUESTIONS.

1. Why may these two commandments be considered together?
2. With what do they deal?
3. What is the object of these two commandments?
4. When only are we keeping God's commandments?
5. What is to be said about the natural state of the heart.
6. What do these commandments forbid?
7. What do they command?

CHAPTER XIV
THE CONCLUSION OF THE COMMANDMENTS
PUNISHMENT OR BLESSING

What does God declare concerning these commandments?

He says: "I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments."

What is meant by this Declaration?

God threatens to punish all those who transgress these commandments; we should therefore dread His displeasure and not act contrarily to these commandments. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep them; we should therefore love and trust in him, and cheerfully do what he has commanded us.

A JEALOUS GOD. God claims our highest love, and is grieved and offended if we turn our affections away from Him and disobey His law. He will punish or bless men according as they hate or love Him: [Rom. 2:6-10, Deut. 11:26-28, Gal. 6:7,8] "to the third and fourth generation of them that hate him," and "unto thousands of them that love Him and keep His commandments."

I. PUNISHMENT

God threatens to punish

1. Whom? All those who transgress these commandments [Rom. 1:18, Lev. 16:14-16, Isa. 59:2, Ezek. 18:4, Rom. 6:23] by commission (doing what is forbidden) or omission (not doing what is commanded), whether it be transgression by deed or word or thought. Every transgression, great or small, is sin, and makes men guilty and punishable. [Gal. 3:10]

2. Why? Because justice demands it. [Gal. 6:7] God cannot be unjust. He cannot overlook or excuse sin. [Ecc. 11:9] Earthly governments must and do punish offenders, or they would be unjust to those persons who obey the law. A law without a penalty would amount to nothing. God, who governs the universe, is and must be just. [Gen. 18:25]

3. How? In this World God punishes sin by Pangs of Conscience; [Matt. 26:75, Matt. 27:3,4] Pains and Sufferings which are the results of wrong-doing, [Jer. 17:10] e.g., the results of drunkenness and licentiousness; Legal Penalties which the State, as God's servant to punish crime, inflicts by fines, imprisonment and hanging, or electrocution; [Rom. 13:4] Special Judgments upon individuals [I Cor. 10:5] in the form of sickness, accidents and reverses, though we must remember that afflictions are not always a judgment, but are often sent upon the godly as a chastening; [Heb. 12:6] General Judgments upon wicked communities, such as that which God sent upon Sodom and Gomorrah. [Gen. 19:24]

Children are often obliged to suffer for the sins of their parents. [Jer. 31:29] If the children also are wicked, their sufferings are a punishment; [Ezek. 18:20, Prov. 3:12, Rom. 8:28] if they are godly, their sufferings are a chastening.

In the Next World God will punish by Exclusion from Heaven and from His Presence; [Matt. 22:13] and by Eternal Misery in Hell. [Rev. 21:8, Matt. 25:41]

II. BLESSING

God promises Grace and every Blessing. [Rom. 2:10]

1. To Whom? To all who keep these commandments. It is true, all men are sinners, and no one keeps these commandments perfectly. [Rom. 3:23] But the godly try earnestly to keep them, [I Cor. 9:27, Phil. 3:12-14] and are truly sorry for every failure to do so. [Rom. 7:24] To them, therefore, God promises grace and every blessing.

2. Why? God will bless them, not because they have earned a reward, but because He is merciful and gracious. [Ps. 103:11, Joel 2:13] We cannot earn anything from God but punishment. His blessing is bestowed upon us solely as a gift of grace.

3. How? In this World God blesses the godly with: Peace of Heart; [John 14:27] His Favor and Guidance; [Ps. 34:15] True Success in Life; [Rom. 8:28] and a Blessed Hope of Salvation. [Rev. 2:10]

Children and remote descendants share in the blessing of godly ancestors.

In the Next World God will grant them: Entrance into Heaven for Christ's Sake; [Matt. 25:34] and Eternal Glory and Blessedness. [John 14:2,3, Rev. 3:21]

A WARNING. An impenitent life will bring upon us God's punishment in time and eternity. We should therefore dread His displeasure, and not act contrarily to these commandments.

AN ENCOURAGEMENT. A godly life will bring upon us God's blessing in time and eternity. We should therefore love and trust in Him, and cheerfully do what He has commanded us.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS CONDEMN US; for we have broken them by thought, word, and deed. [I John 1:8-10, Rom. 3:23, Eccl. 7:20, Jas. 2:10]

We are not able to keep them perfectly. [Rom. 7:18,19] Consequently we cannot be saved by them. [Gal. 3:11] They are meant to show us our sinfulness, [Rom. 3:20] to lead us to repentance, and to direct us to Christ for salvation. [Gal. 3:24] We can be saved only through Him. [John 14:6, Acts 4:12] We are taught concerning Christ, and confess our faith in Him in the Second Part of the Catechism which now follows, namely, The Creed.

PART II

THE CREED

CHAPTER XV

CREEDS OR CONFESSIONS

THE CREED, from the Latin "Credo," I believe, means that which we as Christians believe. The Creed given in our Catechism is the Apostles' Creed. It is so called, not because it was written by the apostles, but because it contains, in a brief summary, the doctrines which the apostles believed and taught. It grew out of the words of the baptismal formula: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost." [Matt. 28:19] It has come down to us from the early centuries of the Church's history, and is her confession of faith. It should be our confession also; we should say from the heart, "I believe in God, etc."

There are TWO KINDS OF CREEDS or Confessions of Faith:

I. Ecumenical or Universal Creeds, which are accepted by the whole Christian Church throughout the world.

They are:

1. The Apostles' Creed.
2. The Nicene Creed.
3. The Athanasian Creed.

II. Particular Creeds or Confessions, which are accepted by the various Churches and Denominations as their distinctive confessions.

Our Lutheran Confessions are:

1. The Augsburg Confession
2. The Apology (Defense) of the Augsburg Confession.
3. The Schmalcald Articles.
4. The Small Catechism.
5. The Large Catechism.
6. The Formula of Concord.

These nine confessions together form the Book of Concord.

THE APOSTLES' CREED CONTAINS in Three Articles, a statement of what the Triune God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, has done and still does for us.

Article I treats of God the Father and His work of Creation.

Article II treats of God the Son and His work of Redemption.

Article III treats of God the Holy Ghost and His work of Sanctification.

THE TRINITY. There is only one God. [Deut. 6:4] But He has revealed Himself to us as Father, Son and Holy Ghost, or Three in One, the Holy Trinity.

The Father is God, the Son is God and the Holy Ghost is God; and yet there are not three Gods but one God. This is a mystery which we cannot understand or explain. We must not expect with our finite mind to comprehend the infinite God. We simply accept the truth concerning God as He has made it known to us through His Word. He plainly tells us that He is one; for He says, "I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt have no other gods before Me." [Exod. 20:2,3]

But He has also plainly revealed Himself as three; not as three Gods but as three who are one God. The three are expressly mentioned in Christ's command to His disciples, "Go ye and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost." [Matt. 28:19] The three were made known at the baptism of Jesus, when the Father spoke from heaven and said, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased," and the Holy Ghost descended on Jesus in the form of a dove. [Matt. 3:16,17] Our salvation is the work of the triune God. The Father sent His Son to save us; [John 3:16] the Son became man and died for us; [Rom. 5:8] and the Holy Spirit applies redemption to our souls [I Cor. 12:3] through the Word of God and the sacraments.

QUESTIONS

1. Define the word Creed.
2. Why is the Apostles' Creed so called?
3. How did it originate?
4. What two kinds of creeds are there?
5. Name the ecumenical creeds.
6. Name the particular creeds or confessions of the Lutheran Church.
7. What does the Apostles' Creed contain?
8. Of what do the three articles of the Apostles' Creed treat?
9. What is meant by the Holy Trinity?

10. How do we know that God is only one God?
11. How do we know that He is Triune?
12. Show that our salvation is the work of the Triune God.

OF GOD THE FATHER, OR CREATION
CHAPTER XVI

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that God has created me and all that exists; that He has given and still preserves to me my body and soul, with all my limbs and senses, my reason and all the faculties of my mind, together with my raiment, food, home and family, and all my property: that He daily provides me abundantly with all the necessaries of life, protects me from all danger, and preserves me and guards me against all evil; all which He does out of pure, paternal and divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me; for all which I am in duty bound to thank, praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

I Believe in, that is, I trust in, I rely upon:

God the Father. He is the Father of my Lord Jesus Christ, [Matt. 11:25] and the first Person of the Holy Trinity. Through Christ He is also my Father. [John 20:17, Eph. 1:3.]

Almighty. He is able to do all things, and to help me in every time of need.

Maker of Heaven and Earth. [Ps. 102:125] He has made all things, the universe and all that it contains. The world did not come into being of itself or by chance, nor did it exist from eternity. God made it out of nothing. In the beginning He created the heaven and the earth. [Gen. 1:1. Ps. 33:6,9] They were at first a formless mass; [Gen. 1:2] but in six days God fashioned the formless mass into the world as it now exists.

On these six days He created,

1. Light,
2. The Firmament.
3. Land and Sea.
4. Sun, moon and stars.
5. Fishes and birds.
6. Beasts and man. [Gen. 1:3-31]

God's Chief Creatures are the angels in heaven and men on earth. All His creatures, as they came from His hands, were very good. [Gen. 1:31] But some of the angels sinned, and became bad angels or devils. [1 Pet. 2:4] And man also, though created in the image of God, fell into sin, and lost his original righteousness and holiness. [Gen. 3, Gen. 8:21, Eph. 4:24.]

Luther's explanation of this Article in the catechism tells us:

- I. What God has done and still does for me.

II. Why God does all this for me.

III. What I owe to God in return.

I. WHAT GOD HAS DONE AND STILL DOES FOR ME

I believe that God has

1. Created Me [Job. 33:4] and all that exists; [Neh. 9:6. Col. 1:16.]

that He has given to me

My Body,--with all my limbs and senses. Though my body, like that of the beasts, is made of the dust of the ground, [Gen. 2:7] it is vastly superior to their bodies, and is a marvelous piece of divine workmanship, [Ps. 139:14] exquisitely adapted to be the earthly tabernacle of the soul which inhabits it.

My Soul, [Gen. 2:7] my reason and all the faculties of my mind, by which I am placed so far above the brute creation. God made the human soul to be a likeness of Himself; [Gen. 1:27, Gen. 9:6] that is, He gave to man in a limited measure those powers and faculties which He Himself possesses in unlimited and infinite measure. And while the human mind has become dimmed by the fall, its powers and faculties are still most wonderful.

2. Preserves Me. [Neh. 9:6] All that has helped to support my life has been God's gift; namely, my raiment, food, home and family, and all my property. I continue to live because He sustains me. [Jas. 1:17, Acts 17:28]

He Daily Provides me abundantly with all the necessaries of life. [Ps. 145:15,16] His care for me is a constant, daily care. His mercies are new every morning. [Matt. 6:31,32, Lam.3:22,23]

He Protects me from all danger, seen and unseen. [Ps. 34:7, Matt. 10:30] I am beset with perils on every hand. If God withdrew His protecting hand, I should perish immediately.

He Preserves me and Guards me against all evil. [Ps. 121:5,8] No real evil can come upon God's children. What seems an evil is meant for a good purpose, and is a blessing in disguise. [Rom. 8:28, Isa. 55:8,9, Jer. 29:11, Ps. 23:4]

II. WHY GOD DOES ALL THIS FOR ME

He does it purely

1. Out of Paternal and Divine Goodness and Mercy. [Ps. 03:13] It is Paternal or fatherly goodness and mercy, because He is my Father through Jesus Christ, and loves me as His child. It is Divine goodness and mercy, because God is love, [I John 4:16] and only His unspeakable love could move Him to bestow His great benefits upon sinful men, even upon the wicked and unthankful. [Matt. 5:45]

2. Without any Merit or Worthiness in Me. [Gen. 32:10] I have merited (deserved) nothing and I am worthy of nothing but punishment; for I am a sinful being, [Ps. 51:5] and have broken God's law many times by thoughts and words and deeds. [Jer. 14:7]

III. WHAT I OWE TO GOD IN RETURN

For all His goodness and mercy I am in duty bound [Ps. 116:12, Ps. 50:14]

1. To Thank and Praise Him. I must not receive God's benefits as a matter of course, but must recognize them as gifts of His grace, and daily thank and praise Him in my heart and with my lips. [Ps. 103:1]

2. To Serve and Obey Him. I must show my gratitude in my life by obeying God's commandments and giving myself with all my heart to His service. [Rom. 12:1]

This is most certainly true; namely,

1. That all the blessings I enjoy come from God.
2. That they are the gifts of His grace and that I am unworthy of them.
3. That I owe to God the fullest gratitude of heart and life.

THE SECOND ARTICLE OF GOD THE SON, OR REDEMPTION

CHAPTER XVII

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord; who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, secured and delivered me from all sins, from death and from the power of the devil, not with silver and gold, but with His holy and precious blood, and with His innocent sufferings and death, in order that I might be His, live under Him in His kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead and lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

The Second Article treats of Jesus Christ, THE SON OF GOD, and his work of REDEMPTION. Prompted by His infinite love, God pitied our lost race, and determined to save us by sending a Redeemer in the person of His only Son. [John 3:16, I Tim. 1:15] Throughout the centuries of Old Testament history He repeatedly gave the promise of redemption: in Eden, [Gen. 3:15] to the patriarchs, [Gen 12:3, Gen. 26:4] to David, [II Sam. 7:12,13] and through the prophets. [Isa. 9:2-7, Mic. 5:2] In the fullness of time God sent His Son into the world. [Gal. 4:4]

Article II and its Explanation may be analyzed as follows:

I. OUR LORD

1. His Names: Jesus, Christ.
2. His Person and Nature: True God and True Man.
3. His Life: His Humiliation and His Exaltation.

II. HIS WORK OF REDEMPTION

1. Whom He has redeemed.
2. From what He has redeemed me.
3. How He has redeemed me.
4. Why He has redeemed me.

OUR LORD

I. HIS NAMES

I believe that Jesus. This was our Lord's personal name, given to Him by the angel. [Matt. 1:21] It signified, "He shall save."

Christ. This was His official name, corresponding with the Old Testament name "Messiah," [John 1:41] and signified "The Anointed One." God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit for the work of redemption, [Luke 4:18-21] to a threefold office:

1. As Prophet, to teach us God's will. [Acts 3:22]
2. As Priest, to atone for our sins, and to intercede for us. [Heb. 4:14]
3. As King, [Matt. 21:5. Rev. 17:14] to reign over us in the Kingdom of Power, of Grace, and of Glory.

II. HIS PERSON AND NATURE

He is True God, Begotten of the Father from Eternity. Christ is true God, [Rom. 9:5] just as the Father is God. [John 5:23, John 20:28, John 8:58, Matt. 16:16]

He is the Son of God, not as a good or great man who has been received or adopted as God's son, but He is in His very nature the Son of God, begotten by His Father [John 3:16] from all eternity. [John 1:1, John 17:5] He is "God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, Begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father." [John 10:30] The Scriptures show this by ascribing to Him divine names, attributes, power, honor, and works. At His baptism and at His transfiguration the Father spoke from heaven and said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." [Matt. 3:17, Matt. 17:5.] His divine nature is proved by His teaching, His miracles, His holy life, and especially by His resurrection from the dead.

And also True Man, Born of the Virgin Mary. Christ was in all respects a human being such as we are, except that He was without sin. [1 Pet. 2:22] He was "conceived by the Holy Ghost," and thus had God alone for His Father. [Luke 1:35] But he was "born of the Virgin Mary," [Luke 2:7] with a human body [Heb. 2:14] and soul. [Matt. 26:38] He grew, increased in wisdom and stature, [Luke 2:52] and reached the age of manhood. He suffered our human wants, [Matt. 4:2, John 4:6,7] such as hunger, thirst, weariness, and pain. He was moved by human emotions, [Luke 10:21, Matt. 26:38, Matt. 21:12] such as joy, sorrow, and indignation. He wept, [John 11:35] prayed, [Matt. 26:39] suffered and died. [1 Pet. 2:23,24] He could not have done these things if He had not been true man.

Christ is therefore both God and man in one Person. [Rom. 1:3,4, John 1:14] Consequently He is the

God-Man. It was necessary that the Redeemer should be both God and man. [1 Tim. 1:15] If He had not been God, but only man, He could not have paid a sufficient ransom for our deliverance from sin, nor have acquired any merit to bestow upon us. Even a sinless man could have saved no one but himself. On the other hand, if Christ had not become man, but remained God only, He could not have put Himself in our place under the law, nor have suffered and died in our stead. But as the God-man, Christ was able to accomplish, and did perfectly accomplish, our redemption. [Rom. 3:24] Thus He became and

Is my Lord, who has Redeemed Me, and in whom I trust for salvation. [Rom. 8:38,39, Rom. 5:1]

CHAPTER XVIII

OUR LORD

III. HIS LIFE

The Savior's life includes two states; namely, His Humiliation and His Exaltation

HIS HUMILIATION

Christ's state of humiliation comprises His life on earth, during which He laid aside the full use of His divine glory and was content to appear among men in the form of a servant. He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross, [Phil. 2:8] in order that He might redeem us. He gave men glimpses of His divine glory: in the authority with which He taught, [Matt. 7:28,29] in the holy life which He led, [John 8:46] and in the miracles which He performed. [John 2:11] But in general He appeared like other men.

This state of humiliation includes Six stages:

He was

1. Conceived by the Holy Ghost,

2. Born of the Virgin Mary. Christ might have appeared among men in the full splendor of His divine glory and majesty. But, in order to redeem us, He was content to be born in poverty, [Luke 2:7, II Cor. 8:9] to grow up in obscurity, [Matt. 2:23] and to appear to most men as if He were simply a man.

3. Suffered under Pontius Pilate. The whole life of Jesus on earth was a life of suffering endured for our sakes. He bore all the trials and hardships which have come upon our race as a result of its sinfulness. He also suffered constant persecution at the hands of his enemies. [Heb. 12:3, John 1:11] But His greatest sufferings came at the end of His life, in the agony of Gethsemane, [Matt. 26:36-46] in the mock-trial before the Jewish Council, [Matt. 26:57-75] and in His sufferings under Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor. [Matt. 27:1-30] He was mocked, spitefully entreated, spitted on, crowned with thorns, and scourged; and then He

4. Was Crucified. [Luke 23:33] Though innocent and holy, He was treated as though He were a malefactor, and was put to a cruel and shameful death. He was nailed to a cross, and left suspended there till He died. So great was His agony, that He cried out, "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" [Mark 15:34]

5. Dead. After unspeakable sufferings, Jesus died on the cross. [Mark 15:37] He was really, and not seemingly, dead. [John 19:33,34] He voluntarily gave up His life for ours. [John 10:18,19] His death was vicarious. He suffered the penalty for our sins. [I Pet. 3:18, Isa. 53:5]

6. Buried. His body was laid away in the grave, where our bodies shall decay. But since Christ was "the Holy One of God," His body could not "see corruption."

HIS EXALTATION

After the work of redemption was completed, Christ assumed the full use of the glory and majesty which had belonged to Him as the Son of God from eternity; His human nature was exalted to a full share in the glory of His divine nature. [Phil. 2:9-11] He had humbled Himself as a man; and He was exalted as a man. His divine nature, being unchangeable, can neither be humbled nor exalted. [Heb. 13:8]

Christ's exaltation, like His humiliation, includes five stages:

1. He Descended into Hell. Immediately before His resurrection He descended into the place of the departed spirits and proclaimed His victory. [I Pet. 3:19]

2. The Third Day He Rose again from the Dead. Having paid in full the penalty for our sins, He rose again from the dead, triumphant, on the third day (Easter). He had power to lay down His life, and power to take it again. [John 10:19] As His death had been a real death, so His resurrection was a real resurrection. He re-appeared to His disciples, not as a spirit, but with the same body that was crucified, the prints of the nails and of the spear being plain in His hands and side. [Luke 24:36-40] But His body was a transformed and glorified body, with new properties and powers. [John 20:19]

The Resurrection a Fact. The reality of the resurrection is established beyond all doubt. The strongest proof of its reality is found in the fact that the disciples themselves were so unwilling to believe it, but were obliged to do so by the evidence of their own senses. Even the doubting Thomas exclaimed, "My Lord, and my God." [John 20:28] During the forty days between His resurrection and His ascension the Lord gave His disciples so many proofs of His resurrection that all their doubts were removed. [Acts 1:3] The women on Easter morn found the grave empty and were told by an angel that He had risen. [Mark 16:6] He was seen by Mary in the Garden, [John 20:14-16] by Peter, [Luke 24:34] by the two disciples at Emmaus, [Luke 24:15] twice by the eleven as they were gathered together, [John 20:19-29] by seven disciples at the Sea of Tiberias, [John 21:1] by more than five hundred brethren at once, [I Cor. 15:6] by James [I Cor. 15:7] and by the eleven when He accompanied them to Mount Olivet and ascended before their eyes to heaven. [Acts 1:9-12] The wonderful change which took place in the apostles when the risen and ascended Christ had sent the Holy Spirit upon them, [Acts 2] and the wonderful change which took place in Paul, [Acts 9:1-29] are further proofs of the reality of the resurrection of Christ.

The resurrection proves

1. That Jesus is the Son of God. [John 20:28, Rom. 1:4, Acts 2:36]

2. That the sacrifice which He made for sin was sufficient and

3. That we also shall rise from the dead. [Rom. 4:25, I Cor. 15:19,20, I Cor. 6:14]

3. He Ascended into Heaven from Mount Olivet forty days after His resurrection. [Acts 1:9] Having finished His work on earth, He returned to the heaven from which He had come. He has gone to prepare a place for us. [John 14:2]

4. And sitteth on the Right Hand of God the Father Almighty; that is, on the right hand of God's power. As the God-man He now wields all power in heaven and earth. [Matt. 28:18, Eph. 1:20-22] He rules over all creatures in the realm of Power; over the believers in the realm of Grace (the Church on earth); and over angels and saints in the realm of Glory in heaven. He continues His office of High-priest, and intercedes for us with the Father. [Rom. 8:34, Heb. 4:14-16]

5. From thence He shall come to judge the Quick and the Dead. At the end of the world Christ will come again visibly, [Mark 13:26] suddenly, and unexpectedly, [Matt. 24:36-42, Luke 21:27] with power and great glory, to judge both the quick (living) and the dead. [II Cor. 5:10, Matt. 25:31-46] He will separate the believing from the unbelieving; receive the believers unto Himself; and cast the impenitent and unbelieving into outer darkness and torment. His coming will fill the believers with joy, [Luke 21:28] and the unbelievers with dismay. [Rev. 6:15-17] No one knows or can compute the exact time of His coming. We should be always ready. [Matt. 24:42,44] His coming will be preceded by signs. [Luke 21:25,26] The present order of the world shall pass away; [II Pet. 3:10] and there shall be new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. [II Pet. 3:13]

CHAPTER XIX CHRIST'S WORK OF REDEMPTION

I. WHOM HE HAS REDEEMED

He has redeemed Me Christ died for all; [I Pet. 2:24. I John 2:2, John 1:29] and consequently for me also. [Gal. 2:20] Believing on Him, all the blessings of His redemption belong to me in time and in eternity. He is my Savior, my Redeemer.

A Lost and Condemned Creature. I was lost, [Isa. 53:6, I Pet. 2:25] because my sin had separated me from God, and I could not have found my way back to Him, if Christ had not sought and found me. I was condemned, [Eph. 2:3] because I had broken God's commandments and deserved eternal punishment.

II. FROM WHAT HE HAD REDEEMED ME

He has secured and delivered me From all Sins; namely, from the guilt of sin by paying its penalty for me on the cross; [I John 1:7, II Cor. 5:21] and from the dominion of sin by giving me grace to fight against it and overcome it. [Rom. 6:14, Rom 8:2-4]

From Death: not from bodily death, for even the Christian must die; but from the fear of bodily death; [Phil. 1:23, I Cor. 15:55,57] from spiritual death; [Eph. 2:6] and from everlasting death. [John 3:16]

And from the Power of the Devil. [I John 3:8] On account of my sins, I was in Satan's power. But Christ has freed me. Since He has paid the penalty for my sins, Satan no longer has any claim upon me, and can no longer harm me. [John 10:27,28] He still tempts me to sin; but Christ gives me grace to resist.

He still accuses me before God on account of my sins; but Christ shields me against Satan's accusations by the satisfaction which He, my Saviour, has made for all my sins. [I John 2:1]

III. HOW HE HAS REDEEMED ME

Not with Silver and Gold; [I Pet. 1:18,19] for no material wealth could purchase freedom from spiritual slavery and death. Nor has He redeemed me merely by becoming my great teacher and example; for this would not take away my guilt;

But with His Holy and Precious Blood. [I John 1:7] His blood was the price which Christ paid for my ransom. It was holy, because He was holy; and precious, because He was the Son of God. The shedding of Christ's blood for my sins was the only way in which I could be redeemed; for without the shedding of blood, there is no remission of sins. [Heb. 9:22] And with His Innocent Sufferings [I Pet. 3:18] and Death. [Rom. 5:7,8]

Christ suffered and died, not for any sins of His own, but for my sins. He was innocent and had no sin at all. But He voluntarily bore the punishment which I deserved, and thus satisfied all the demands of divine justice for me. Since He has borne the punishment for me, I, believing on Him, need no longer be punished.

Christ was my Substitute. By His holy life He perfectly fulfilled God's law in my place; [Rom. 5:19] and by His innocent sufferings and death He bore the punishment for my sins in my place. [II Cor. 5:21] All that Christ has done is imputed to me by faith; [Rom. 4:24] that is, it is all counted as if I myself had done it. [Rom. 4:5] His death, therefore, frees me from guilt and condemnation: and His holy life makes me appear righteous in God's sight and fit to enter into heaven. My entire hope of salvation rests on Christ and what He has done for me. [II Cor. 5:19]

IV. WHY HE HAS REDEEMED ME

In order that

I might be His. He desired me for His own, and therefore purchased me with His precious blood. [II Cor. 5:15] Hence I now belong to Him, and not to Satan or to myself. He wishes me to yield myself fully to Him in heart and life. [Gal. 2:20] If I refuse to do so, I am withholding what belongs to Him.

Live under Him in His Kingdom; namely, in His kingdom of Grace on earth by a life of faith, and in His kingdom of Glory in heaven. [Col. 1:12-14]

And serve Him in Everlasting Righteousness, Innocence and Blessedness. [I Pet. 2:9] I am to serve Him and do His will, not as a slave by compulsion, but willingly, gladly, and out of love. [Matt. 16:24] With my best efforts I only partially succeed in doing His will on earth, for I am still imperfect. [Rom. 7:21-24] But in the next world I shall be freed from all sin, and be transformed and glorified in body and soul. Then I shall serve Him in perfect holiness and happiness for ever. [Rev. 7:15]

Even as He is Risen from the Dead, and Lives and Reigns to all Eternity. As Christ rose from the dead, so I am to rise from the death of sin to newness of life in Him. [Rom. 6:4] As He lives and dies no more, so I am to live in righteousness and no more become a servant of sin. [Rom. 6:9,10] As He reigns to all eternity, so I am to live and reign with Him for ever. [Rev. 3:21]

This is most certainly true:

1. That Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, is my Lord, Who has redeemed me.
2. That He has paid the penalty for my sins with His holy and precious blood and His innocent sufferings and death.
3. That consequently I belong to Him, and should serve Him Now and for ever.

QUESTION

1. What four things does the explanation of the second article tell us about Christ's redemption?
2. Whom has Christ redeemed?
3. What was I before Christ redeemed me, and why?
4. From what has Christ redeemed me?
5. What is meant by redemption from sin? from death? and from the devil?
6. How has Christ redeemed me?
7. Why was the shedding of Christ's blood necessary?
8. Why did Christ suffer and die if He was innocent?
9. What is meant when we say that Christ was our substitute?
10. Why has Christ redeemed me?
11. To whom do I now belong, and what is my duty therefore?
12. What is meant by living under Christ in His kingdom?
13. In what spirit am I to serve Him?
14. What hope has Christ secured for me?
15. What three things are most certainly true according to this second article?

THE THIRD ARTICLE
OF GOD THE HOLY GHOST, OR SANCTIFICATION
CHAPTER XX

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the Body; and the Life Everlasting. Amen.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Ghost has called me through the Gospel, enlightened me by His gifts, and sanctified and preserved me in the true faith; in like manner as He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and preserves it in union with Jesus Christ in the true faith; in which Christian Church He daily forgives abundantly all my sins, and the sins of all believers, and will raise up me and all the dead at the last day, and will grant everlasting life to me and to all who believe in Christ. This is most certainly true.

THE THIRD ARTICLE treats of GOD THE HOLY GHOST and His work of SANCTIFICATION. It tells us how we become partakers of the Redemption which is described in the Second Article. Christ has accomplished our redemption, and the Holy Ghost applies that redemption to our souls. The work of the Holy Ghost in us is as necessary for our salvation [I Cor. 2:14]. as the work of Christ for us. We must believe in Christ, if we would be saved; [Mark 16:16] and it is the Holy Ghost who causes us to believe. [I Cor. 12:3]

Article III and its Explanation may be analyzed as follows:

THE HOLY GHOST

- I. His Person and Nature: He is True God.
- II. His Work: He Calls, Enlightens, Sanctifies, and Preserves me in the true Faith.
- III. His Workmanship: The Holy Christian Church.
- IV. The Fruits of His Work
 1. The Forgiveness of Sins.
 2. The Resurrection of the Body, and the Life Everlasting.

THE HOLY GHOST

I. HIS PERSON AND NATURE

I Believe in the Holy Ghost.

The Holy Ghost is true God. He is not simply a power or energy of God, but a Person. [Acts 5:3,4] "He proceedeth from the Father and the Son, and with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified." [John 14:26. John 15:26]

Scriptures ascribe to Him divine names, attributes, power, honor, and works. Christ commanded His disciples to baptize men in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. [Matt. 28:19]

The Holy Spirit instructed the prophets and teachers of Old Testament times, [II Pet. 1:21] and was poured out upon the apostles on the day of Pentecost. [Acts 2] He inspired the Holy Scriptures. [II Tim. 3:16] He comes into our hearts through the Word of God and the Sacraments.

II. HIS WORK

The work of the Holy Ghost is Sanctification. This word is used here, at the head of the Third Article, in the wide sense, and includes the Holy Spirit's entire work upon our souls; namely, Calling, Enlightening, Sanctification in the narrower sense, and Preservation in the Faith.

1. ITS NECESSITY. If the Holy Spirit does not work in us, we cannot be saved. Hence, we say in the catechism,

I believe that I cannot by my own Reason or Strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord, or come to Him. For as I am by nature, my reason is so darkened by sin, [I Cor. 2:14] that I do not see my need of the Savior. and I am so lacking in spiritual strength (being dead in trespasses and sins), [Eph. 2:1] that I am unable to believe in Christ. Consequently it is necessary that the Holy Spirit should teach me to see in Christ my only Savior, and give me strength to believe in Him.

2. ITS NATURE.

But the Holy Ghost has Called me through the Gospel. [II Tim. 1:9] He has caused His Word to be written, [II Thess. 2:14. II Tim. 3:16] and causes it to be continually proclaimed [John 20:31. I Cor. 5:20. I Cor. 1:21] for the purpose of making God's grace known to me, and inviting me to share in it. He calls all men, and means His call earnestly. He does not merely seem to call some, but actually calls all who hear or read His Word. [I Tim. 2:4. I Pet. 3:9] And along with the call, He gives us the strength which we need in order to believe. [Eph. 2:4-6] Those who obey the call are the Elect or Chosen [Matt. 20:16] ones, and obtain salvation. Those who refuse to obey the call are lost. [Mark 16:16] Enlightened me by His Gifts. The Holy Ghost shows me my lost condition and God's saving mercy, and thus leads me to Repentance through the Law, [John 16:8. Rom. 3:20] and to Faith through the Gospel. [John 15:26. John 1:17]

Repentance includes

1. An Acknowledgment and Confession of Sin. [Ps. 51:3,4]
2. Sincere Sorrow for Sin. [Luke 22:62] It must be sorrow for the sin itself, and not merely for the consequences of sin.
3. The Hating and Forsaking of Sin. [Ps. 51:10]
4. An Earnest Desire for Forgiveness. [Ps. 51:2,9] True repentance always leads to faith. [II Cor. 7:10] Sorrow for sins which does not lead to faith, is not repentance but remorse, and often drives men to despair. [Matt. 27:3-5]

Faith includes

1. A Knowledge of the Facts of the Gospel. [Rom. 10:14]
2. A Belief of the Facts. [Rom. 4:20,21]
3. Trust or Confidence in Christ our Savior. [II Tim. 1:21] This trust is the chief part of faith.

True faith is not a mere matter of the head, but of the heart. It is not a mere intellectual belief that God exists or that Christ lived and died; but it is a firm confidence that Christ is actually our Savior, and that all our sins are washed away by His precious blood. [I John 1:7] Faith says, "The Son of God loved me and gave Himself for me." [Gal. 2:20]

True faith is always preceded by repentance. The impenitent have no promise of forgiveness, and therefore cannot have faith. They cannot believe a promise which has not been given to them.

Regeneration and Conversion.

Those whom the Holy Spirit has brought to repentance and faith are in a state of regeneration and conversion. The change which has taken place in them is called a new birth or regeneration, [John 3:5,6] because a new life has been planted in them. [II Cor. 5:17] It is called conversion, [Acts 3:19] because they have been converted or turned from sin to righteousness, from self to God. It is not necessary that a Christian should be able to point to the exact time of his conversion. The important question is not, "When were we converted?" but, "Are we now in a converted state?" that is, "Are we now penitent and believing?"

Justification

All those who have true faith are justified; [Rom. 5:1.! Rom. 4:5] their sins are forgiven, and the righteousness of Christ is imputed (counted as belonging) to them. [Phil. 3:9] When we believe in Christ, all that He has done and suffered for us is regarded by God as if we had done and suffered it ourselves' [II Cor. 5:21. Rom. 8:1] for Christ was our substitute. Consequently, those who believe in Christ are justified for His sake; that is, they are pronounced by God to be righteous and fit to enter into heaven.

By Faith Alone.

We are justified and saved by faith alone, without works. [Rom. 3:28] We shall enter heaven, not because we deserve to enter, [Gal. 2:16] but only because we believe in Christ. Salvation is a Gift: acquired for us by Christ's holy life and innocent death; bestowed upon us freely by God's grace; and accepted by faith. [Eph. 2:8,9] Our faith is not a merit on account of which we are forgiven, but it is the hand with which we reach out and accept the free gift of forgiveness which God offers for Christ's sake.

Our own works have nothing to do with our justification. [Rom. 3:20] If God took them into consideration at all, they would condemn us; for at best we are imperfect and sinful creatures. [Rom. 7:18-23. Gal. 3:10] In order to be saved, we need a perfect righteousness. Christ's righteousness alone is perfect. It becomes ours by faith.

And Sanctified.

Those who have true faith are sanctified by the Holy Spirit; that is, they are made holy in heart and life. [Rom. 8:5.! Rom. 6:22] While good works do not save us, they do and must follow faith as its fruit. [Matt. 7:18]

Believers do good works out of love to God and gratitude for His mercy. Faith that does not result in a holy life is a dead faith, [Jas. 2:26] and cannot save. The Christian dare not live in sin. [Rom. 6:2] He has become a new creature; for he is born again: and consequently he leads a new life. We shall, indeed, never become sinless in this world, but we must honestly and earnestly try to do God's will in all things. [Phil. 3:12-14. Matt. 5:16]

We should grow more and more holy every day. [Eph. 4:22-24. Rom. 12:2. I Thess. 4:1] We cannot do this by our own power, but we can by the help of God. We should, therefore, be diligent and faithful in the use of the Word of God and the Sacraments; for these are the means which the Holy Ghost uses for our sanctification.*§

§ *Faith in Christ does not at once make us perfectly holy and sinless, as some persons maintain; but it takes away the guilt of our sin. We are completely justified and forgiven as soon as we believe; but we are not completely sanctified. Sanctification is a gradual process, which will be completed only when we are transformed and glorified in heaven.

And Preserved me in the True Faith. As it is the Holy Ghost who brings us to faith, so it is He who preserves us in it. [Phil. 1:6.] The world, the flesh, and the devil are enemies who seek to destroy our faith and to rob us of our salvation. We should constantly pray for strength to resist these enemies, [Matt. 26:41.] Rev. 2:10.] and should obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit. We must avoid willful, intentional sin, [Eph. 4:30] and live a life of daily repentance. If we sin willfully, we fall from grace and are lost, unless we come to true and lasting repentance. If we faithfully use the Means of Grace, and earnestly strive to lead a Christian life, the Holy Spirit will preserve us in the faith to the end. [Phil. 2:12,13]

CHAPTER XXI

III. HIS WORKMANSHIP

The Holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints.

WHAT THE CHURCH IS. The Church is "The Communion of Saints" or fellowship of believers. It consists of all those persons who truly believe in Christ. [Matt. 16:16, 18.] We call it the Workmanship of the Holy Ghost, because He brings men to faith and thus produces the Church. He calls, gathers, enlightens and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and preserves it in union with Jesus Christ in the true faith. [Eph. 5:25-27.]

The Church may also be called the Holy Spirit's Workshop, because He abides and works in it through the Means of Grace, the Word of God and the Sacraments.

WHEN FOUNDED. The Holy Christian Church was founded on the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Ghost was poured out upon the disciples. [Acts 2:1-41] On that day the Gospel of the crucified and risen Savior was first preached by the apostles, the first converts were made, and the first Christian baptisms were administered.

VISIBLE OR INVISIBLE. The Church is invisible, because we cannot read men's hearts nor tell who are real believers. But if we regard the Church as an external organization which includes all who profess to believe, it is visible. In this outward visible Church there are many persons who are not real believers. But Christ knows His own. [II Tim. 2:19. John 10:14] The angels on the day of judgment will separate the hypocrites from the true Christians. [Matt. 13:41,42]

THE MARKS OF THE CHURCH. The Church is found wherever the Gospel is rightly taught and the Sacraments are rightly administered. For wherever God's Word is preached, some persons believe it, [Isa. 55:10,11] and where believers are, there is the Church.

THE CHURCH IS ONE. It consists of the true believers out of all the different churches, denominations, and sects. There is one Flock, with one Shepherd. [John 10:16] The Church is the Body of which Christ is the Head. [Col 1:18. Eph. 1:22,23.]

ITS NAMES. The Church is called Holy, because the Holy Spirit works in it and through it, and because its members, though not perfect, lead holy lives. It is called Christian, because it consists of those who believe in Christ. It is called Catholic or Universal, because it is meant to include all men everywhere. Catholic does not mean Roman Catholic.

MILITANT AND TRIUMPHANT. The Church, consisting of true believers, is one and the same Church on earth and in heaven. On earth it is the Church Militant, because its members are still fighting the good fight of faith. [I Tim. 6:12.] In heaven it is the Church Triumphant, because its members have won the victory of faith. [Rev. 7:9-14. Rev. 2:10. Rev. 3:21] The only way into the Church Triumphant is through the Church Militant.

THE CHURCH'S WORK

The Church is the agency or instrument which the Holy Spirit uses for the evangelization of the world. [Matt. 28:19. Mark 16:15.] It is the institution through which He does His work of applying redemption to the souls of men. The Church, therefore, has a work to do; namely, to make disciples of all men.

THE MEANS through which the Church, as an agency of the Holy Spirit, is to do its work are the Word of God and the Sacraments. They are sufficient for the purpose for which they are intended, because the Holy Spirit works through them and endows them with supernatural power. [Rom. 1:16. Heb. 4:12.]

THE WORKMEN who are to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments are the ministers. They must be properly called and ordained by the Church. [Acts 14:23. Tit. 1:5.] In the New Testament all pastors are called elders or bishops. It was only at a later period that the office of a bishop was made superior to that of elder, pastor or minister. The office of an apostle was a separate and higher office. The apostles were the witnesses of Christ's redemption, and possessed miraculous powers. They have no successors. Ministers are the ambassadors of Christ, beseeching men to be reconciled to God. [I Cor. 5:20.] Christ speaks through them. He who hears them, hears Christ; he who despises them, despises Christ. [Luke 10:16] If a minister should happen to be a hypocrite, his official acts, such as baptism and the like, would still be valid. [II Tim. 2:13] Deacons [Acts 6:1-6.] are officers whose duty it is to assist the pastor, and to look after the temporal interests of the congregation. Deaconesses [Rom. 16:1] are consecrated to the work of love and mercy, and minister to the sick, the needy, the neglected, the ignorant, the fallen, and the friendless.

We do not have Woman Pastors as this is contrary to the Word of God. [1 Timothy 2:11 – 14, 1 Cor 14:33 – 35]
{Please note added by Pastor Roepke}

THE VARIOUS CHURCHES

While the Church, in the strict sense of the word, is the "communion of saints" and therefore one, yet outwardly it has become divided, in the course of time, into many different churches, denominations, and sects. It contains Four Great Branches: The Greek Catholic Church; The Roman Catholic Church; The Evangelical Lutheran Church; and The Reformed Churches, comprising a great number of denominations and sects. The Lutheran Church and the Reformed Churches are called Protestant.

THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

The Evangelical Lutheran Church is in reality the old original Church which came into existence on the day of Pentecost. Luther simply threw out the errors which had crept into the Church during the course of the centuries, and held fast the doctrines taught in God's Word. As a separate and distinct Church, the Lutheran Church dates from the year 1530, when the Augsburg Confession was read before the emperor and diet of the German Empire. Her doctrines are laid down in her six Confessions, contained in the Book of Concord.

THE CHURCH OF THE PURE GOSPEL The Lutheran Church receives the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the only rule and standard of religious teaching. (modified by Pastor Roepke)

The Lutheran Church teaches the great central doctrine of the Gospel, that we are saved by faith alone, without works. (modified by Pastor Roepke)

The Lutheran Church abides by the teachings of Scripture even when she cannot understand them. The other Protestant Churches explain away and reject some teachings of Scripture because they cannot understand them. (modified by Pastor Roepke)

HER NAME. The name Lutheran was first given to our Church by her enemies. But she accepted it, because she believes the doctrines which Luther taught. The name which she chose for herself is Evangelical (true to the Gospel). She is now known by both names taken together, Evangelical Lutheran.

WHERE FOUND. The Lutheran Church is found in nearly all parts of the world, especially in Germany, the Scandinavian countries and the United States.

IN AMERICA. The Lutheran Church In America comprises three general bodies: The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, ELCA, organized by merger in 1989. The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, LC-MS, formed 1850. The Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran church, WELS, To these there are also a number of independent synods which are not connected with any general body. Synods are often subdivided into Conferences. Please note that there are major theological differences between the bodies based on Word of God. (modified by Pastor Roepke)

HER WORK. The Lutheran Church, like the Church in general, is to make disciples (Christians) of men. She is all the more bound to do her work, because she is the Church of the Pure Gospel. Her work is done in local congregations, in Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Inner Missions, and in maintaining the necessary institutions of learning (colleges, seminaries, etc.) and of mercy (orphanages, asylums, hospitals).

 *Since a particular Church is no older than her distinctive confession, the Lutheran Church is more than thirty years older than the Roman Catholic Church; for the Augsburg Confession was adopted in 1530, while the Canons and Decrees of the Council of Trent, which are the Confession of the Roman Catholic Church, were not completed until 1563. The ecumenical creeds are accepted by both Churches, and therefore prove nothing as regards their relative age.

DUTIES OF HER MEMBERS. It is the duty of her members to lead a Christian life, to be loyal to their own Church, and to co-operate heartily in all her local and general work, for the glory of God and the salvation of immortal souls.

CHAPTER XXII
THE HOLY GHOST
IV. THE FRUITS OF HIS WORK

The Forgiveness of Sins; the Resurrection of the Body; and the Life Everlasting

The fruits of the Holy Spirit's work in us are:

1. The Forgiveness of Sins.
2. The Resurrection of the Body and the Life Everlasting.

1. The Forgiveness of Sins has been acquired for me by my Savior Jesus Christ; [I John 1:7.!] but it is made mine by the Holy Ghost, who has brought me to faith and preserved me in it. For it is through faith that I obtain forgiveness. [Rom. 5:1]

In which Christian Church. The forgiveness of sins is made mine in the Church through the Word of God and the Sacraments. Faith takes hold of and clings to the promises therein given. Special assurance of forgiveness is also given in Confession and Absolution.

He daily forgives abundantly all my Sins. Even if I am a sincere Christian, I am an imperfect and sinful creature, and I need God's forgiveness every day. [I John 1:8,9. Rom. 7:18-25] By keeping me in a state of repentance and faith, the Holy Spirit secures to me the continuous forgiveness of all my sins. The Christian's life is a daily repentance and a daily believing that God for Christ's sake graciously pardons all our transgressions and shortcoming. [Luke 11:3,4. Rom. 8:32.!]

And the Sins of all Believers. All who lead a life of daily repentance and faith are daily and abundantly forgiven.

2. The Resurrection of the Body and the life Everlasting. The work of the Holy Spirit in me will not be completed until the last day.

He will raise up me and all the Dead at the Last Day. The bodies of all men shall be raised from the dead and re-united with the souls from which they were parted at death. [John 5:28,29. Acts 24:15.!] These bodies will be essentially the same which we had on earth, but they will be immortal and incorruptible. [I Cor. 15:42] The bodies of the believers will be endowed with new and glorious properties, like the body of Christ after His resurrection. [I Cor. 15:42-44. Phil. 3:21.] They will be fit tabernacles for the glorified souls to inhabit through all eternity. They will be spiritual bodies, freed from all the imperfections and limitations to which they were subject on earth. The bodies of those believers who are still alive at Christ's second coming shall undergo the same change in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump. [I Cor. 15:51-53]

And will grant Everlasting Life to me and to all who believe in Christ. [John 3:16] The believers shall then enter upon the full and perfect enjoyment of eternal salvation. [Matt. 25:34] Here we have the forgiveness of sins, but there we shall have life everlasting. The believers shall obtain an eternal inheritance in heaven, [I Pet. 1:4] and enter upon the enjoyment of a bliss so exalted that we cannot form any adequate conception of it here on earth. There will be differences of glory proportioned to the strength of faith and the zeal in labor manifested on earth. [I Cor. 15:41,42. Luke 19:17-19] But all shall be perfectly happy. They shall be free from sin and from every evil, [Rev. 21:4] and dwell in the light of God's presence forever. [I Thess. 4:17. John 17:24. Rev. 7:15.]

Eternal Death. The impenitent and unbelieving shall be cast into eternal torment, [Matt. 25:41] and shall suffer indescribable pain and misery for ever. [Rev. 14:11] The greater their wickedness and neglected opportunities on earth, the deeper will be their remorse and anguish. [Luke 12:47,48. Matt. 11:24] Having refused to let the Holy Spirit make them fit for entrance into heaven, [Rev. 21:27. Matt. 7:23,24] they shall be cast out into the only place for which they are fit, into hell.

PART III THE LORD'S PRAYER CHAPTER XXIII

PRAYER

PRAYER is the conversation of the believing heart with God. [Ps. 19:14] It is as necessary for the life of the soul, as breathing is for that of the body. As children of God we must live in communion with Him; and we cannot be Christians without prayer. For this reason God has given us His name to use in prayer, and the Savior has taught us how to pray in the Lord's Prayer.

TO WHOM WE SHOULD PRAY. Our prayers should be addressed to God alone, [Matt. 4:10] and not to the Virgin Mary, the saints, the angels, or any other creatures.

WHY WE SHOULD PRAY. We should pray,

1. Because we constantly need God's mercy in temporal and spiritual things.
2. Because we owe God our thanks for his many benefits. [Ps. 103. Jas. 1:17]
3. Because God has commanded us to pray. [Matt. 5:9 Matt. 26:41]
4. Because God has promised to hear us. [Matt. 7:7,8. Ps. 50:15]

WHEN WE SHOULD PRAY.

1. Always; [Luke 21:36] that is, our soul should live in constant communion with God, and always be open toward Him.
2. Whenever we feel special need of prayer: in danger, [Matt. 8:25] distress, anxiety, [Matt. 15:22] sickness, [Jas. 5:14,15] bereavement, sorrow, [Ps. 25:16,17] temptation, [Matt. 26:41] or when we are burdened with the sense of our guilt. [Luke 18:13]
3. At fixed times: [Dan. 6:10] every morning and evening, at meal-times; in family worship; [Josh. 24:15] in church. [Matt. 18:20]

FOR WHOM WE SHOULD PRAY.

1. For ourselves.
2. For our fellow-Christians. [Eph. 6:18]
3. For all men: [1 Tim. 2:1] for friends and foes, [Matt. 5:44] the poor and the rich, the afflicted and the tempted.
4. For the Church.
5. For the State.

OUR PRAYERS SHOULD CONTAIN:

1. Adoration.
2. Thanksgiving.
3. Confession.
4. Petition.
5. Intercession.

THE MANNER. Our prayers should be the sincere utterance of our hearts; otherwise they will be a mere mockery. [Matt. 6:5] They may be in our own words or those of another. It will often be profitable to use the prayers found in good prayer-books or in the Liturgy, and to draw largely from the Psalms, which are a treasury of good and beautiful prayers. We should not lengthen our prayers by vain repetitions, nor repeat the Lord's Prayer or any other prayer a certain number of times as if that were a merit. [Matt. 6:7] Nor should we shorten our prayers through laziness, indifference, and the like. The Lord's Prayer should generally be added to our own prayers as a summary of those things for which we should pray.

THE POSTURE which we assume should indicate reverence to God. We should kneel or stand with folded hands. If we are unable to assume either of these postures, we may pray in any position. We stand in church on Sunday, because it is the day of the Lord's resurrection and a day of joy. We should not sit still in church while others stand, unless we are too weak or ill to stand. Kneeling is an attitude of humiliation, particularly appropriate for the confession of sins.

IN CHRIST'S NAME. We should always pray in Christ's name, and never omit His name to please men or avoid offence; for our prayers are only heard for Christ's sake. We have the promise that whatever we ask in His name will be given to us. [John 16:23]

To pray in Christ's name means to pray,

1. As one who trusts in Christ and asks to be heard for His sake. [Eph. 2:18. Rom. 5:2]
2. As one who prays in Christ's spirit, submitting all things to God's will, and saying with Christ, "Not my will, but Thine, be done." [Matt. 26:39 Matt. 6:10]

IN FAITH. We should pray in faith, believing that God will answer our prayer for Jesus' sake. [Jas. 5:16] If we do not pray in faith, we shall not be heard. [Jas. 1:6,7]

THE ANSWER TO PRAYER. God always answers the prayer of the believer. Those who ask and receive not, have either asked amiss, [Jas. 4:3] or have not asked in faith. If we ask anything according to His will, He heareth us. [I John 5:14]

He answers our prayer,

1. By granting us what we ask, though perhaps after a long delay, by which He tries our faith and patience.
2. He grants us good things instead of the hurtful things for which we ignorantly ask.
3. He gives us strength to bear the burden which we pray to have removed, [II Cor. 12:9] and thus confers a greater blessing than the removal of the burden would be.

CHAPTER XXIV THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Lord's Prayer is so called because it was given to us by the Lord Jesus Christ. [Matt. 6:9-13. Luke 11:1-4.] It teaches us how to pray aright, and is the model after which we should fashion all our prayers. It shows us the manner in which we should come to God, and the things for which we should ask.

ITS CONTENTS. The Lord's Prayer contains an Introduction, Seven Petitions, and a Conclusion. The first three petitions regard God's glory, and deal with His Name, His Kingdom, and His Will; the last four regard our bodily and spiritual needs, and deal with our Daily Bread, Forgiveness, Temptation, and Deliverance from Evil. Six petitions, the first three and the last three, refer to spiritual gifts; and only one, the fourth, refers to earthly gifts. Thus we are taught that, when we pray, we should think first of God's glory; and that we should pray more for spiritual than for temporal benefits.

INTRODUCTION

Our Father Who art in Heaven.

What is meant by this Introduction?

God would thereby affectionately encourage us to believe that He is truly our Father, and that we are His children indeed, so that we may call upon Him with all cheerfulness and confidence, even as beloved children entreat their affectionate parent.

This Introduction shows us the manner in which we should come to God in prayer; namely, as His children, who are asking their Father for what they need, and who are sure that He loves them and will answer their prayer.

Our Father. ††*God is our Father and we are His children through Christ our Savior. [Gal. 3:26. I John 3:1,2. Rom. 8:16] We should therefore be sure that He will receive us kindly for Jesus' sake whenever we come before him with our prayers. We should call upon Him with all cheerfulness and confidence, even as beloved children entreat their affectionate parent. [Matt. 7:11. Rom. 8:15. Heb. 4:16.]

We are taught to say our and not my Father, because the Lord's Prayer was given to believers to use in their common worship as well as in their private devotions; and because we should pray not only for ourselves, but for our fellow-believers and for all men.

†† * Observe how the name "Father," by which we are here taught to address God, corresponds with the duty "to fear, love, and trust in Him above all things" as enjoined by the First Commandment.

Who Art in Heaven. An earthly father is not always able to do what his children ask, even if he desires to do so. But the Father to whom we here pray is our Heavenly Father, and is abundantly able to answer all our prayers. [Eph. 3:20] He not only loves us with an everlasting love, but is almighty, omniscient, and all-wise. He is able to do all things which He wills to do and will answer all our prayers in the very way that is best for us.

CHAPTER XXV THE FIRST PETITION

Hallowed be Thy name.

What is meant by this Petition?

The name of God is indeed holy in itself; but we pray in this petition that it may be hallowed also by us.

How is this effected?

When the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as the children of God, lead holy lives in accordance with it; to this may our blessed Father in heaven help us. But whoever teaches and lives otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, profanes the name of God among us; from this preserve us, heavenly Father.

In this Petition we pray for grace to hallow God's name^{††} by the pure teaching of His Word and by childlike obedience to it.

The Name of God means not only the names by which we address Him, but all by which he is known to us. Compare the Second Commandment.

Is indeed Holy in Itself. [Ps. 99:3] God's name is holy, because he is holy. We cannot increase or diminish God's holiness by anything that we do. This petition does not imply, therefore, that we are to make God's name holy.

But we pray in this Petition that it may be hallowed also by us. We hallow God's name when we regard and treat it as holy; in other words, when we honor and glorify God by worshiping and serving Him in accordance with the revelation which He has given of Himself in His Word. [John 17:6.Ps. 100:2,3]

I. HOW GOD'S NAME IS HALLOWED

1. When the Word of God is taught in its Truth and Purity. God has revealed Himself to us in His Word, and it is only from that Word that we can learn to know Him and worship Him aright. [John 1:18] Those, therefore, who in the Church, the school, or the home, teach God's Word, as well as those who gladly hear, read, and learn it, hallow His name. [John 17:17] But the Word must be taught in its truth and purity; that is, it must be taught as it is recorded in the Scriptures, with nothing added, taken away, or changed. [Gal. 1:9. Rev.22:18,19]

And we as the Children of God lead Holy Lives in accordance with it. In order to hallow God's name, we must not only hear but obey His Word. [Jas. 1:22. Matt. 5:16] As God's children we should think, speak, and act according to the rule which He has laid down in His Word, and thus glorify His name.

II. HOW GOD'S NAME IS PROFANED

But whoever teaches and lives otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, profanes the name of God among us. [Rom. 2:21-24. Tit. 1:16] False teachers, who deny God's Word, or change it, or add to it, or subtract from it, profane the name of God, because they hide the glory of God from those who believe their teachings. Those who live otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, and are hypocrites or impenitent and unbelieving persons, profane God's name, because they refuse to glorify Him by obedience to His Word.

From this preserve us, Heavenly Father. We pray thus, because we are by nature inclined to error and sin, and have need of God's grace to preserve us from profaning His name.

†† *There is a parallel between this Petition and the Second Commandment. We here pray for grace to avoid what the Second Commandment forbids, and to do what it commands. To this may our Blessed Father in Heaven help us. We cannot preserve God's Word in its truth and purity against its foes, nor believe and obey it by our own strength; hence we pray for God's help.

2. What does the name of God mean?
3. Why is God's name holy in itself?

CHAPTER XXVI THE SECOND PETITION

Thy kingdom come.

What is meant by this Petition?

The kingdom of God comes indeed of itself without our prayer; but we pray in this petition what it may come unto us also.

When is this effected?

When our heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His holy Word, and live a godly life here on earth and in heaven forever.

In this Petition we pray that the Kingdom of God may come to us^{§§*} and to all men; that is, that we all by true faith and a godly life may become members of the Church on earth and in heaven.

The Kingdom of God is the Kingdom which Christ has founded, and to which all who believe in Him belong. It is the Kingdom of Grace in this world and the Kingdom of Glory in the next. [Mark 1:15. Matt. 25:34]

§§ *Since the Kingdom of God comes to us through the Gospel, there is a close relation between this Petition and the Third Commandment, which commands us to "deem God's Word holy and willingly hear and learn it."

Comes indeed of itself without our Prayer. Christ has established His kingdom and will continue to extend it, whether we pray for it or not. [Isa. 9:7]

But we pray in this Petition that it may come to us also; that is, into our hearts. In other words, we pray that we may become true Christians; [Matt. 7:21] and if we are Christians, we pray that we may become better Christians.

Missions. This petition is also a prayer for missions. [Matt. 9:37,38. Mark 16:15] We here pray that God's kingdom may come to all men. If our prayer is sincere, then we must be willing also to give liberally, so that the Gospel may be preached to the heathen (Foreign Missions) and to the spiritually destitute in our own land (Home Missions and Inner Missions).

HOW GOD'S KINGDOM COMES TO US

When our Heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit. Since only believers belong to God's kingdom, and we "cannot by our own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ our Lord," we pray in this petition that God would give His Holy Spirit to us,

So that by His Grace we believe His Word, and live a godly life here on earth and in heaven forever. The Holy Spirit must teach us to repent of sin and to believe in Christ, and preserve us in a life of daily repentance and faith. Then God's kingdom will come to us more and more in this world, and in the next world we shall belong to it for ever.

2. What is meant by the kingdom of God?
3. How does God's kingdom come without our prayer?

CHAPTER XXVII
THE THIRD PETITION

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

What is meant by this Petition?

The good and gracious will of God is done, indeed, without our prayer, but we pray in this petition that it may be done by us also.

When is this effected?

When God frustrates and brings to nought every evil counsel and purpose which would hinder us from hallowing the name of God and prevent His kingdom from coming to us, such as the will of the devil, of the world, and of our own flesh; and when he strengthens us and keeps us steadfast in His Word and in the faith even unto our end. This is His gracious and good will.

In this Petition we pray for grace gladly to believe, do and suffer all that God wills us to believe, do, and suffer, so that His name may be hallowed, and His kingdom may come.

Thy Will.

God's will is,

1. That we should believe the Gospel and be saved. [I Tim. 2:4]
2. That we should obey His commandments and be holy. [I Thess. 4:3]
3. That we should willingly submit to all His dealings with us, and suffer patiently when He lays a cross on us. [Rom. 8:17]

Be Done on Earth as it is in Heaven. We pray that God's will may be done by all men and especially by us, as heartily, as continually, and as completely as it is done by the holy angels. [Ps. 103:20,21]

The Good and Gracious Will of God. The will of God is always good and gracious, because He always wills those things which He, in His wisdom and love, [I John 4:16] sees are best. He does all things well, even when we do not understand His ways. [Isa. 55:8,9. Rom. 8:28]

Is Done indeed without our Prayer. There will always be some persons who permit God to accomplish His good and gracious purposes in them, whether we pray for it or not. [Isa. 55:11] But we pray in this Petition that it may be done by us also; [Rom. 12:12] that is, that we may believe His Gospel, obey His Commandments, and trustfully permit Him to lead us in whatsoever paths He will.

WHAT WE PRAY GOD TO DO

In order that God's good and gracious will may be done by us, all opposing wills must be overcome.

[Luke 22:31]

We therefore Pray God

1. To frustrate and bring to nought the Will of the Devil, [II Cor. 2:11] of the World [I John 2:15,16] (wicked persons), and of our own Flesh [Gal. 5:17] (our natural heart). For these are the great enemies of our souls, who by their evil counsels and purposes would hinder us from hallowing the name of God and prevent His Kingdom from coming to us. They tempt us to oppose God's will by despising His Gospel, disobeying His Commandments, and murmuring against His dealings with us. We pray God

2. To strengthen us, [Phil. 2:13] so that we may be able to overcome these enemies and do God's will in spite of them. [Eph. 6:11,12] They are very powerful, but if we are in earnest about overcoming them, God will give us the needful strength in answer to our prayer.

We pray God

3. To keep us Steadfast in His Word and in the Faith even unto our End, [Phil. 1:6.

I Pet. 4:19] so that we may believe the Gospel with all our heart, live holy Christian lives, trust God to lead us as He sees best, and be faithful unto death, that we may receive the crown of life.

QUESTIONS

2. What do we mean by God's will in this petition?
3. How do we pray that God's will may be done?
4. Why is the will of God good and gracious?

CHAPTER XXVIII
THE FOURTH PETITION

Give us this day our daily bread.

What is meant by this Petition?

God gives, indeed, without our prayer, even to the wicked also, their daily bread; but we pray in this petition that He would make us sensible of His benefits, and enable us to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

What is implied in the words "our daily bread"?

All things that pertain to the wants and the support of this present life; such as food, raiment, money, goods, house and land, and other property; a believing spouse and good children; trustworthy servants and faithful magistrates; favorable seasons, peace and health; education and honor; true friends, good neighbors, and the like.

In this Petition we acknowledge that every good gift comes from God; [Jas. 1:17] and we pray that He would give us, day by day, those things which we need for our earthly support and comfort, and would make us content and thankful.

THE PETITION ITSELF

While we are to pray first and chiefly for spiritual blessings, the Savior here teaches us that we may and should pray for temporal benefits also.

Give. By praying God to give us our daily bread, we acknowledge that it comes from Him. He is the absolute owner of all things, [I Cor. 10:26] and divides to all men as He will. All that we have is His gift. he gives it as a blessing upon our labor; hence, we must work as well as pray. [II Thess. 3:10] But without His blessing, our labor would be in vain. [Ps. 127:1] The farmer sows, but God gives the increase.

Us. We are taught to pray not only for ourselves, but for others also. We should be concerned that they too may have their daily bread; and, when necessary, we should give them a portion of what God has first given to us, and thus become the means through which He supplies their wants. [Heb. 13:16]

This Day. We are not to pray for "much goods for many years," but only for this one day's needful supply. When the morrow comes, if we are still alive, we are to pray again. [Matt. 6:34] We are to depend upon God from day to day. We are, indeed, to make a proper provision for our future, but we are not to give way to anxious, unbelieving care about it.

Our. We ask for bread which we may call our own, bread honestly gotten, bread which God intends we shall have as a reward of our labor; not someone else's bread, and not such things as God, in His wisdom, sees fit to withhold from us.

 *Compare this Petition with the First Article of the Creed and its Explanation.

Daily Bread. According to Luther's explanation in the Catechism, our daily bread includes All Things which pertain to the Wants and the Support of this Present Life; such as: Food, raiment, to supply our bodily wants; Money, Good, House and Land, and Other Property, by means of which we may procure the supply of our bodily wants; A Believing Spouse and Good Children, that we may have a good Christian home; Trustworthy Servants and Faithful Magistrates, that we may have the help and protection which we need for the enjoyment of our own;

Favorable Seasons, Peace and Health, Education and Honor, True Friends, Good Neighbors, and the like, all those things which increase our earthly well-being and happiness.

While we pray in this petition that God would give us all the things enumerated above, if He sees fit, we should remember that He is still giving us our daily bread when He gives us only those things which we actually must have for the support of our life. [I Tim. 6:8]

WHY WE PRAY THUS

God gives indeed, without our Prayer, even to the Wicked [Matt. 5:45] also their Daily Bread; for God is good, and seeks to lead men to repentance by His goodness. [Rom. 2:4]

But we pray in this Petition that He would make us Sensible of His Benefits, so that we may acknowledge them as His gifts, [Deut. 8:10] and not ascribe them to our own efforts or to chance, as the worldly and unbelieving do.

And enable us to receive our Daily Bread with Thanksgiving. [Eph. 5:20] Since all the blessings we enjoy are God's gifts, bestowed without any worthiness on our part, [Gen. 32:10] we pray that we may always receive them with thankful hearts, and express our gratitude with our lips and in our lives. We should give thanks at every meal, and in all our prayers.

Contentment True thankfulness implies contentment with those gifts which God sees fit to bestow upon us. [Heb. 13:5. I Tim. 6:6-8] We must not murmur because he does not include in our daily bread some things which we desire to have; nor dare we permit the withholding of those things to prevent us from being truly thankful for the many benefits which God does bestow upon us.

QUESTIONS.

1. What do we acknowledge and for what do we pray in this petition?
2. Why do we pray God to "give"?
3. Why do we pray, "give us"?
4. Why do we pray "this day"?
5. Why do we say our daily bread?
6. What does daily bread include?
7. How much must God give us in order to answer this prayer for daily bread?

8. Why does God give, even to the wicked?
9. What should we bear in mind with respect to all our blessings?
10. How should we receive our daily bread?
11. How should we express our gratitude?
12. What is to be said about contentment?

CHAPTER XXIX THE FIFTH PETITION

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

What is meant by this Petition?

We pray in this petition that our heavenly Father would not regard our sins, nor deny us our requests on account of them; for we are not worthy of anything for which we pray, and have not merited it; but that He would grant us all things through grace, although we daily commit much sin and deserve chastisement alone. We will, therefore, on our part both heartily forgive and also readily do good to those who may injure or offend us.

In this Petition we acknowledge our sinfulness, pray for forgiveness, and promise to forgive our fellow-men.

The word "And" connects this petition very closely with the preceding one. The daily forgiveness of our sins is as necessary for our souls as our daily bread is for our bodies.

AND FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES

These words are at once a Confession of Sin, and a Prayer for Pardon.

1. A Confession. The praying of this Petition presupposes a penitent state of heart. If we are not truly penitent, this petition is a mockery on our lips. We have need to confess our guilt, because

We daily commit much sin. [I John 1:8] If we are true Christians, we do not sin wilfully and intentionally. But with our best efforts, we still sin much through weakness, [Rom. 7:19] not only by commission, but still more by omission. Not a day passes by, in which we do not transgress God's law by thoughts and words and deeds. We often do the wrong and omit doing the right without even knowing that we have done so. [Ps. 19:12]

And deserve Chastisement (Punishment) alone. Our sins make us guilty and deserving of punishment, even though they be sins of weakness. We must not excuse or extenuate them. God never excuses any one. But if we penitently confess our sins, He will forgive us for Jesus' sake. [Ps. 32:5.] [John 1:9]

2. A Prayer for Pardon. As in the fourth petition we daily pray "Give," so in this fifth petition we daily pray "Forgive." Since Jesus has taught us to pray thus, and we pray as God's children, this petition presupposes that we pray in faith. We pray as those who believe that God will be gracious and merciful to us for Jesus' sake.

We pray in this Petition that our Heavenly Father would not regard our Sins, [Ps. 25:7. Ps. 51:9] but would look upon the righteousness which Jesus has acquired for us "with His holy and precious blood and His innocent sufferings and death." [1 John 1:7]

Nor deny us our Requests on account of them. If God should regard our sins, He would send only punishment upon us, [Ps. 130:3. Ps. 143:2] and not give us any of those benefits for which we ask in our prayer.

For we are not Worthy of Anything for which we pray, and have not merited it. Nothing which we have done or are able to do can make amends for our sins, or earn any blessing from God. [Dan. 9:18. Luke 15:18,19] We therefore pray that He would grant us all things through grace alone for Jesus' sake.

AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US

3. A Promise to Forgive our Fellow-men. God's mercy to us must move us to be merciful to others. [Eph. 4:32] If it does not, God will withdraw His mercy from us, [Matt. 6:14,15] as the master withdrew his from the unmerciful servant in the parable. [Matt. 18:32-35] Forgiving others is not a merit which entitles us to receive God's forgiveness. It follows as a result of God's mercy to us. Because God so mercifully forgives us for Jesus' sake, we promise that

We will, therefore, on our part, both heartily forgive and also readily do good to those who may injure or offend us. No matter how greatly others may have sinned against us, we have sinned much more against God. If He is willing to forgive us our great debt, we should be willing to forgive our fellow-men their lesser debt. If we refuse to forgive others, God will lay our own sins to our charge, and punish us.

QUESTIONS

1. What three things do we do in this petition?
2. What is to be said about the close connection between this petition and the preceding one?
3. What does this petition presuppose?
4. Why do we need to confess our guilt to God?
5. Is sin ever excusable?
6. Why does this petition presuppose faith?

7. What do we pray God to do with our sins?
8. If God regarded our sins, how would He treat our requests?
9. Why do we promise to forgive others?
10. Why must we be willing to forgive them?

CHAPTER XXX THE SIXTH PETITION

And lead us not into temptation.

What is meant by this Petition?

God, indeed, tempts no one to sin; but we pray in this petition that God would so guard and preserve us, that the devil, the world and our own flesh may not deceive us, nor lead us into error and unbelief, despair, and other great and shameful sins; and that, though we may be thus tempted, we may nevertheless finally prevail and gain the victory.

As children of God we must not only seek forgiveness for past sins, but be anxious to avoid sin in the future. We therefore pray that, as far as is possible according to His gracious will, God would keep us from being tempted, and would give us strength to overcome when we are tempted.

If we are in earnest in praying this Petition, we will not run into temptation ourselves, [Matt. 4:7] nor lead others into it.

HOW WE ARE TEMPTED

God indeed tempts No One to Sin: for He wishes us to do good, and not evil. But He leads us into circumstances in which we are tried, and must decide for or against Him, for good or for evil. This is the sense in which the Bible speaks of God as tempting persons. He tries or tests us. Remembering that we are weak, we pray in this petition that God would spare us such trials as much as is possible according to His will, and strengthen us in them, that we may be faithful.

The Devil, the World, and our own Flesh tempt us to Sin. These are the great enemies of our souls, who will lead us to destruction if we do not earnestly resist them and repel their temptations.

WHAT WE PRAY

1. That we may not be Deceived or Misled by these Enemies.

We pray in this Petition that God would so guard and preserve us, that The Devil, who puts evil thoughts into our hearts, [Gen. 3:4,5. II Cor. 11:3.] The World (wicked persons in the world,) [Prov. 1:10. John 15:18.] which tempts us by example, allurements, and threats, And our own Flesh (our natural heart), [Rom. 8:7] which inclines and urges us to sin, May not deceive us, by promising us happiness in the paths of sin, while in reality such paths lead only to misery and destruction. [Matt. 7:13,14]

Nor lead us into error and unbelief, and thus into ruin, since our salvation depends on believing the truth as it is in Jesus; nor into Despair; because we are lost if we despair of God's mercy, instead of believing His precious promises in Christ; And other great and shameful sins, in addition to the error, unbelief, and despair mentioned above.

2. That we may Overcome these Enemies and be saved.

And that though we may be thus tempted, we may nevertheless finally prevail, and gain the victory. The struggle against these enemies is a warfare (the good fight of faith) [I Tim. 6:12] which lasts to the end of our days. We dare never think that we are safe without further watchfulness, effort, and prayer. [I Cor. 10:12] If we sometimes fall, we must not despair nor give up, but repent and determine to do better. If we earnestly pray for God's help, arm ourselves with His Word, and beware of false security, we shall be enabled to overcome these foes more and more each day. [I Cor. 10:13] And when, at last, our end approaches and the warfare is over, God will give us the victory, and bestow upon us for Jesus' sake the crown of life. [Jas. 4:7. II Tim. 4:7,8]

QUESTIONS.

1. Why do we pray this petition?
2. What do we mean by it?
3. If we are in earnest in praying it, what will we not do?
4. In what sense does God tempt?
5. Who tempts us to sin?
6. What do we pray against these enemies?
7. How does the devil tempt us? the world? our own flesh?
8. How do they try to deceive us?
9. Into what do they try to mislead us?
10. How long must we fight against these enemies?
11. If we fall, what should we do?
12. How may we overcome these foes?
13. When only shall we be completely victorious over them?

CHAPTER XXXI THE SEVENTH PETITION

But deliver us from evil.

What is meant by this Petition?

We pray in this petition, as in a summary, that our heavenly Father would deliver us from all manner of evil, whether it affect the body or the soul, property or character, and at last, when the hour of death shall arrive grant us a happy end, and graciously take us from this world of sorrow to Himself in heaven.

As in the sixth Petition we pray to be preserved from sinning, so in this seventh Petition we pray to be delivered from all the evil which has come upon our race as a consequence of sin.^{†††} But this petition comes last, because we should be more anxious to be delivered from the sin itself, than from the evil results which follow upon it.

We Pray in this Petition as in a Summary. All the petitions which precede it are included in this last one.

That our Heavenly Father would Deliver us from all Manner of Evil:

I. IN THIS WORLD

Whether it affect the Body, sickness, pain, hunger, thirst, destitution, Or the Soul, sin, impenitence, unbelief, sorrow, anxiety, care, despondency, insanity, and the like, property, poverty, want, famine, fire, flood, wars, riots, etc., Or Character, disgrace, slander, and the like.

How we pray for this Deliverance. God wills that we should sometimes suffer affliction, in order that our repentance and faith may be increased. [Isa. 48:10.Rev. 3:19.II Cor. 4:17,18] Consequently, our prayer for deliverance from evil in this world is a prayer.

1. That, whenever it is possible according to His will, God would ward off affliction from us.
2. That He would give us grace to bear patiently those afflictions which He sends, [II Cor. 12:9. Rom. 8:28] and would make them a blessing in disguise for us.
3. That in His own time He would remove from us whatever distresses us. [I Sam. 2:6,7]

^{†††} *There is a very close connection between the last two petitions, marked by the word "But." "Temptation will not cease until deliverance from evil [and from the evil one] has come; and again, when deliverance from evil has come, temptation will cease to assail us." Luehrs.

We should not grow discouraged or despondent under affliction, but trust in God's mercy and bear our cross cheerfully. [Matt. 10:38] And we should see to it that we do not, by our own sin and folly, bring upon ourselves evils which might have been avoided.

II. IN THE NEXT WORLD

In this world we shall have to endure some evils as long as we live. [John 16:33] But if we are faithful, God will not only overrule them all for our good, [Gen. 50:26] but will finally, at death, deliver us from all evil. [II Tim. 4:18]

And at last, when the Hour of Death shall arrive, grant us a Happy End. An unhappy death is the worst of all evils. But a happy death will more than compensate for all the evils endured in this world. [Rom. 8:18] A happy death will be ours, if we persevere in the faith and die in Christ. [Rev. 14:13] For then God will pardon all our sins for Jesus' sake,

And graciously take us from this World of Sorrow to Himself in Heaven. [Rev. 7:14,15] There all evils shall cease for ever. [Rev. 21:4] For sin, and all that follows upon sin, shall be no more. In this entrance into heaven at last, all our highest hopes and prayers shall find their complete and eternal fulfillment.

QUESTIONS.

1. What do we pray for in this petition?
2. What connection exists between the sixth and seventh petition?
3. Why is this petition called a summary?
4. From what kind of evils do we suffer in this world?
5. How do we pray for deliverance from evil in this world?
6. When shall we be completely delivered from all evil?
7. What is to be said about a happy end? 8. Why shall we suffer from no evil in heaven?

CHAPTER XXXII THE CONCLUSION

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

What is meant by the word "Amen"?

That I should be assured that such petitions are acceptable to our heavenly Father, and are heard by Him; for He Himself has commanded us to pray in this manner, and has promised that He will hear us. Amen, amen, that is, yea, yea, it shall be so. In this Conclusion we give the reason why we address our prayer to our heavenly Father, and why we expect to be heard. It contains a Doxology, and an Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY

For Thine is the Kingdom: Thou art King and Lord of all; [I Tim. 1:17] from Thee all gifts must come. [Jas. 1:17]

And the Power: with Thee nothing is impossible; [Luke 1:37] Thou art able to do abundantly above all that we ask or think. [Eph. 3:20]

And the Glory: Thou art God alone, [Isa. 46:4] infinite in holiness, power, and love; to Thy name alone be all praise. [Ps. 115:1]

For ever and ever. The kingdoms of earth and their glory pass away; but Thy kingdom and power and glory endure for evermore. [Dan. 4:3. Ps. 145:11-13.]

THE AMEN

Amen means Verily. By adding it to our prayer we express our assurance,

That such Petitions are Acceptable to our Heavenly Father and are heard by Him. The petitions for temporal and spiritual blessings which we here bring before Him are the very ones which He desires us to present. [I John 5:14]

For He Himself has taught us to pray in this Manner, and to ask for these things,

And has promised that He will hear us. [II Cor. 1:20] The promise is, that whatsoever we ask in Christ's name shall be given to us. [John 16:23] Hence we add at the end of our prayer: Amen, that is, it shall be so; God will answer our prayer. [Matt. 7:9-11]

QUESTIONS.

1. Why do we add the conclusion to the Lord's Prayer?
2. What two parts does the conclusion contain?
3. What do we mean by saying, "Thine is the kingdom? the power? the glory? forever?"

4. What does Amen mean? 5. Why do we add it to our prayer?
6. Why are we sure that these petitions are acceptable to our heavenly Father?
7. What promise have we with respect to our prayers?

CHAPTER XXXIII THE MEANS OF GRACE

The spiritual blessings spoken of in the Creed and asked for in the Lord's Prayer are brought to us through the Means of Grace.

WHAT THEY ARE

The Means of Grace are:

1. The Word of God;
2. The Sacrament of Holy Baptism;
3. The Sacrament of the Altar.

They are called the means of grace, because they are the means or vehicles through which God's grace comes to us. It is through the Word of God and the Sacraments that the Holy Spirit does His work in us.

THE WORD OF GOD

THE CHIEF MEANS OF GRACE is the Word of God. [1 Pet. 1:23] For through it the Holy Spirit "calls, enlightens, sanctifies, and preserves us in the true faith." Even in the Sacraments, the principal thing is the Word of God with its command and promise; and without the Word of God there would be no sacrament.

ITS POWER. The Holy Spirit is always in the Word, and gives it saving power. Through the Law and the Gospel which the Word contains, He brings to repentance and faith all those persons who do not willfully resist His grace. [Heb. 4:12] Through it He not only tells us what to do, but gives us the power to obey. [Eph. 2:4,5] Because He is in the Word, "it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." [Rom. 1:16] (Compare what is said concerning the Bible in Chapter I. and concerning the Work of the Holy Spirit in Chapter XX.)

THE SACRAMENTS

WHAT A SACRAMENT IS. A Sacrament is a holy ordinance, instituted by Christ, in which invisible heavenly gifts are bestowed upon us through the use of visible earthly elements.

HOW MANY THERE ARE. In the sense in which we use the word "Sacrament" there are only two holy ordinances to which the name may be applied; namely, Baptism and the Lord's Supper. For these are the only two which possess the three essentials of a sacrament:

1. The Command of Christ;
2. The Use of Earthly Elements;
3. The Communication of a Heavenly Gifts.##*

OLD TESTAMENT TYPES. The rite of Circumcision, practiced in Old Testament times, was a type of Baptism; and the Passover was a type of the Lord's Supper.

THEIR PURPOSE. The sacraments have been given to us in order that they might bring a special comfort to our souls, in addition to the comfort which we find in God's Word. For the Grace of God which is offered to all men in the Word, is brought and sealed to each believer individually in the sacraments. My baptism assures me that all the blessings of Christ's redemption are meant for me; and the Lord's Supper assures me that Christ's body and blood were given and shed for me for the remission of my sins.

FAITH NECESSARY. Without faith, no one can obtain any benefit from the sacraments. But he who believes receives the heavenly gifts offered in them, and has the blessed assurance that he is a child of God and an heir of heaven.

QUESTIONS.

1. How are the spiritual blessings spoken of in the Creed and asked for in the Lord's Prayer brought to us?
2. What are the Means of Grace?
3. Why are they so called?
4. What is the chief Means of Grace?
5. Why does the Word of God possess saving power?
6. What is a sacrament? 7. How many sacraments are there?
8. What are the three essentials of a sacrament?
9. What is the purpose of the sacraments?
10. Does every one who receives the sacraments derive a benefit from them?

*The Roman Catholic Church teaches that there are seven sacraments: Baptism, Confirmation, Confession, the Lord's Supper, Ordination, Marriage, and Extreme Unction. But five of these lack one or more of the essentials of a sacrament enumerated above.

PART IV THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY BAPTISM CHAPTER XXXIV

PART 1 OF BAPTISM

I. What is Baptism?

Baptism is not simply water, but it is the water comprehended in God's command and connected with God's Word.

What is that Word of God?

It is that which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as it is recorded in the last chapter of Matthew, verse 19: "Go ye, and teach (make disciples of) all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.

WHAT BAPTISM IS

BAPTISM CONSISTS in applying water to a person "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost," as Christ has commanded. [Matt. 28:19]

Baptism is not simply Water. In one sense, indeed, the water used in baptism is simply ordinary water from well, cistern, or stream; [Acts 8:36] but when used in baptism it ceases to be simply water, and possesses special value and power, because

It is the Water Comprehended in God's Command. The water of baptism is a water which God has commanded us to use,--His command being, "Go ye and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them," etc

And Connected with God's Word. In baptism, water is applied "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost"; and thus it is used in connection with the very words of Christ Himself. The water and the Word together make the sacrament.

ITS NECESSITY. Baptism is necessary for all, because Christ has commanded that all should be baptized, and has connected the blessing of salvation with this sacrament. [Mark 16:16] Those who despise it and refuse to be baptized, cannot be saved. But if any person should desire baptism and be unable to obtain it, he would not on that account be lost. It is not the lack of baptism, but the despising of baptism that condemns.

Baptism is to be administered by the pastor. But if there should be extreme peril of death before a minister could possibly arrive, any member of the Church may baptize. Such lay-baptism, however, should afterwards be announced in church, and be declared valid.

WHO ARE TO BE BAPTIZED

The command of Christ to "make disciples" includes "all nations." All those persons, therefore, who are willing to become disciples are to be baptized; namely, adults who have received the proper religious instruction and profess faith in Christ, and children whom competent sponsors present for baptism.

INFANT BAPTISM. Infants should be baptized at a very early age, and thus be received into God's covenant as His children. Since they cannot be instructed before baptism, they should be carefully instructed afterwards [Matt. 28:20] and be brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, [Eph. 6:4] so that they may always remain faithful and obedient children of God.

SPONSORS answer the questions for the child at its baptism, and promise to see to it that the child is properly instructed and trained in the Christian religion. Sponsors must themselves be members in good standing in the Church.

WHY CHILDREN SHOULD BE BAPTIZED. *§§§ As children were received into the Old Testament covenant by the rite of circumcision, which was a type of baptism, so God desires that they shall be received into the New Testament covenant by baptism.

Some of the reasons for infant baptism are the following:

1. Children form part of the "nations" whom Christ commanded His disciples to baptize.
2. They are by nature sinful and need God's grace as well as adults. [John 3:5,6!
Job 14:4] While they have not yet committed any conscious transgressions, they have inherited a sinful heart, and the germs of sin in them will soon grow into actual transgressions.
3. Christ has commanded that little children should be brought to Him, and we obey this command by baptizing them and teaching them. [Luke 18:16]
4. Christ says of children, "Of such is the kingdom of God"; [Mark 10:14,15] and they have a right, therefore, to receive that sacrament by which we enter God's kingdom.
5. The promise of God's grace is given to children as well as to adults. [Acts 2:39]
6. Children have capacity for faith. [Matt. 18:6]
7. The apostles baptized whole families. [Acts 16:33]

§§§ *Baptists sometimes argue against infant baptism on the basis of the Scripture passage: "Go ye and teach all nations, baptizing them," etc., claiming that Christ says first teach and then baptize. But, as a matter of fact, Christ mentions baptizing before teaching in this passage. For in its correct translation, as given in the Revised Version of the English Bible, it reads, "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you." If the order in which the two words "baptize" and "teach" occur in this passage proved anything with respect to the baptism of infants, it would prove that they should be baptized. For in the case of children, baptizing comes first and teaching follows, just as in the passage quoted.

HOW BAPTISM IS TO BE ADMINISTERED

In His command to baptize, Christ does not specify any mode of baptism. It may be performed in any one of the three ways; namely, by sprinkling, pouring, or immersion. One mode of baptism is just as valid as the others. The most convenient mode, the one best adapted to all circumstances, and the one most widely used in the Christian Church, is by pouring or sprinkling. Immersion is not advisable in our climate, and in many cases, such as severe sickness, it could not possibly be employed.

IMMERSION NOT ESSENTIAL. The word "baptize" does not necessarily mean to immerse, as the Baptists claim. When the Saviour instituted this sacrament, He did not coin a new word, but employed one already in use. The original Greek word from which our English word "baptize" is derived, is used in the New Testament in the sense of washing [Mark 7:4] and sprinkling. [1 Cor. 10:2] The baptism of the three thousand on the day of Pentecost [Acts 2:41] and of the Philippian jailor [Acts 16:33] could hardly have been by immersion, on account of the scarcity of water available for such a purpose. When Jesus was baptized, He "came up out of the water"; [Matt. 3:16] but it is quite probable that He stood in the stream while John poured water on His head.

THE ESSENCE OF BAPTISM consists in applying water "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost"; and its gracious effect depends, not on the amount of water that is used, but on the Word of God with which the water is connected.

CHAPTER XXXV

PART 2 Of BAPTISM

II. What gifts or benefits does Baptism confer?

It works forgiveness of sins, delivers from death and the devil, and confers everlasting salvation on all who believe, as the Word and promise of God declare.

What are such words and promises of God?

Those which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as they are recorded in the last chapter of Mark, verse 16: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

THE BENEFITS OF BAPTISM

Baptism is God's means of receiving us into His covenant, and opening up to us all the treasures of Christ's redemption. Through this sacrament He adopts us as His children and receives us into membership in His Church. [Gal. 3:26,27] We are baptized in (into) the name of the Father (who sent His Son to save us), and of the Son (who died to redeem us), and of the Holy Ghost (who applies Christ's redemption to our souls). Therefore every baptized person may say, "God is my Father, Christ is my Redeemer, the Holy Ghost is my Sanctifier, and all the benefits of Christ's redemption are offered to me." Hence we declare of baptism, that It works Forgiveness of Sins, [Acts 2:38. Acts 22:16. Eph. 5:25,26] delivers from Death and the Devil, and confers Everlasting Salvation. These are the very benefits which Christ has acquired for me by His innocent sufferings and death (see Article II of the Creed, Chapter XIX). And since I have been "baptized into Christ's death," [Rom. 6:3] all these benefits belong to me if I only accept them by faith. [ark 16:16] I am regarded by God as having already suffered the full penalty of my sins in Christ's death, and for His sake I am pardoned and saved.

On all who Believe. Faith is the hand with which we grasp and hold fast the treasures of God's grace offered in this sacrament. The benefits are offered to everyone who is baptized, but they are accepted and possessed only by him who believes.

As the Word and Promise of God declare. The benefits belong to all who are baptized and believe, because God has said so. [Numb. 23:19] He has promised, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved."

WITHOUT FAITH baptism will not save any one. "He that believeth not shall be damned" even though he is baptized. For while such a person has been adopted as God's child, he is a disobedient and rebellious child, and therefore is disinherited, and loses the heavenly inheritance [I Pet. 1:4] which would have been his, if he had remained faithful.

BAPTISM PERMANENT. Baptism, once properly administered, is not to be repeated. It is a permanent covenant between God and us. While men are often unfaithful to their covenant, God never is. [II Cor. 1:20. Rom. 3:3] He bestows the blessings of baptism on all who comply with its conditions. Having received us by baptism as His children, He ever afterwards remains our loving heavenly Father, to whom we may turn with fullest confidence. And if any who have fallen from grace repent and seek His mercy, they find Him standing with open arms to receive them. [Luke 15:11-24] Such persons need not be rebaptized; their old baptism stands. A rebellious son who repents needs not to be redopted, but needs only to be forgiven.

PART 3 OF BAPTISM

III. How can water produce such great effects?

It is not the water, indeed, that produces these effects, but the Word of God which accompanies and is connected with the water, and our faith which relies on the Word of God connected with the water. For the water without the Word of God is simply water, and no baptism. But when connected with the Word of God, it is a baptism, that is, a gracious water of life and a washing of regeneration in the Holy Ghost; as St. Paul says to Titus in the third chapter, verses 5-8: "According to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ, our Saviour; that being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. This is a faithful saying."

WHY BAPTISM HAS POWER TO CONFER SUCH BENEFITS

It is not the Water, indeed, that produces these Effects. Water alone cannot wash away sins. Yet the water of baptism is necessary, because Christ has commanded its use, and has connected the promise of salvation with it. But the Word of God which accompanies and is connected with the Water. It is the Word of God, with its command and promise, that makes baptism a sacrament, and gives it power to confer such great benefits. [John 6:63] And our Faith which relies on the Word of God connected with the Water.* The baptism is a real baptism and offers these great benefits, whether we believe or not. But the benefits become ours, only when we believe the promises of God. [Mark 16:16]

It is a gracious Water of Life, because the Word and promise of God, which are connected with it, give it power to bestow life and salvation on all who believe.

And a "Washing of Regeneration" in the Holy Ghost, because it is the means through which the Holy Ghost causes us to be "born again," as God's children.

* *The story of Naaman the leper (II Kings 5:8-14) illustrates how water, the Word of God, and faith can produce great effects. It was not the water of the Jordan that cured Naaman; yet he could not have been cured without the water, because the promise of healing was connected with its use. When he believed the Word of promise and used the water as he was commanded, he was healed. So the water, the Word, and our faith, which trusts in the Word, cleanse us from the leprosy of sin.

QUESTIONS

1. What does God do for us through baptism?
2. What may every baptized person say?
3. What benefits does baptism confer?
4. Who has acquired these benefits for you, and how?
5. Why do they become yours through baptism?
6. What has faith to do with the reception of these benefits?
7. How do we know that baptism confers all these benefits on all who believe?
8. What is to be said about those who are baptized but do not believe?
9. What is to be said about the permanence of baptism?
10. Why has baptism power to confer such great benefits?
11. Why is it a "gracious water of life," and a "washing of regeneration"?

CHAPTER XXXVI PART 4 OF BAPTISM

IV. What does such baptizing with water signify?

It signifies that the old Adam in us is to be drowned and destroyed by daily sorrow and repentance, together with all sins and evil lusts; and that again the new man should daily come forth and rise, that shall live in the presence of God in righteousness and purity forever.

Where is it so written?

St. Paul, in the epistle to the Romans, chapter 6, verse 4, says: "We are buried with Christ by baptism into death; that like as He was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

THE DUTY WHICH BAPTISM IMPOSES

Baptism bestows upon us the great privilege of being children of God; but it also imposes upon us the duty to live and act as God' children. Every one who is baptized promises, either with his own lips or through his sponsors, that he will live thus. God is always faithful to His part of the baptismal covenant; we should always be faithful to ours.

Our duty is two-fold:

1. The Old Adam in us is to be drowned and destroyed by Daily Sorrow and Repentance, together with all Sins and Evil Lusts. By the "old Adam in us" is meant our old sinful self, as we are by nature. For we are born into the world with a sinful heart and a natural inclination to evil. This evil nature still clings to us even after we have been "born again" into sonship with God. [Rom. 7:18-24] This old sinful self, together with the sins and lusts to which it prompts us, must be suppressed, subdued, and gradually destroyed. [Eph. 4:22.! Gal. 5:24] We should gain the mastery over it more and more every day. We shall do this, if we daily mourn over our sinfulness, and ask God for Christ's sake to grant us forgiveness and strength.

2. The New Man should daily come forth and rise, that shall live in the Presence of God in Righteousness and Purity forever. By the "new man" is meant our new self, what we have become by the work of the Holy Spirit in us. For if we have been baptized and believe, there has been implanted in us a new life. We have become new creatures, [II Cor. 5:17] who by God's grace hate sin and desire from the heart to do God's will alone. As the old man in us should daily become weaker and gradually die, so the new man in us should daily grow stronger, [Eph. 4:23,24.! II Pet. 3:18] and cause us to live in constantly increasing righteousness and purity here on earth, [Phil. 3:12] till at last we are received into God's presence for Jesus' sake, and live before Him in perfect righteousness and purity forever.

CONFIRMATION

The rite of confirmation is closely connected with the baptism of children. For the children who have been baptized are afterwards to be taught "to observe all things whatsoever Christ has commanded"; [Matt. 28:20] and, when they have reached an age at which they are able to examine themselves, they should be confirmed.

PRECEDED BY INSTRUCTION. Confirmation is to be preceded by thorough instruction in the doctrines and duties of the Christian religion. In addition to the instruction received in the home and the Sunday-school, those who desire to be confirmed are specially instructed in the catechetical class by the pastor. Confirmation is the Church's testimony that the catechumens have received the necessary instruction to fit them for intelligent and earnest participation in the full privileges of Church membership. This instruction is the principal thing, and without it confirmation would lose its meaning.

WHAT CONFIRMATION IS. In confirmation the catechumen makes no new promises, but repeats with his own lips the confession of faith and the promise of faithfulness to Christ which were made for him by his sponsor at his baptism. Thereupon the minister lays his hand upon the head of each catechumen, and the minister and congregation pray that God would give to each His Holy Spirit to keep him in the faith and to cause him to grow in holiness.

WHY WE CONFIRM. Confirmation is not commanded in the Scriptures, but is a useful ordinance of the Church. It does not make us members of the Church; for we become members by baptism; but it admits us to communicant membership in the Church. Those who have been confirmed are admitted to the Lord's Supper. They are also entitled to act as sponsors at the baptism of children. The right to vote depends upon the constitution of the particular congregation.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR CHAPTER XXXVII

PART 1 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

1. What is the Sacrament of the Altar?

It is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, under the bread and wine, given unto us Christians to eat and to drink, as it was instituted by Christ Himself.

Where is it so written?

The holy evangelists, Matthew, Mark, and Luke, together with St. Paul, write thus: "Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread: and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said, Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it: this cup is the New Testament in My blood, which is shed for you, for the remission of sins: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me."

ITS NAMES.

This sacrament is called:

1. The Sacrament of the Altar, because it is administered at the altar.
2. The Lord's Supper, because it was instituted by the Lord while the disciples were eating the Passover Supper
3. The Table of the Lord, because the Lord here gives food and drink to our souls.
4. The Communion, because it is a communion of bread and wine with the body and blood of Christ, a communion of believers with one another.
5. The Eucharist-a name derived from a Greek word meaning to give thanks because the administration of the Lord's Supper is attended with thanksgiving.

WHAT THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR IS

The Lord's Supper was instituted by our Lord Jesus Christ the same night in which He was betrayed, while He and the disciples were eating the Passover Supper. [1 Cor. 11:23-25.

Matt. 26:26-28. Mark 14:22-24 Luke 22:19,20.] What the Lord's Supper is, we learn from the words of Christ Himself as given by the evangelists, Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and by St. Paul.

THE EARTHLY ELEMENTS. The Lord took bread, and when He had given thanks, He brake it and gave it to His disciples. After the same manner also He took the cup containing the wine, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to them. The earthly elements used in this sacrament are, therefore, bread and wine. The wafers which are generally used in Lutheran churches are unleavened bread--the kind which Christ used--because at the time of the Passover no other but unleavened bread dared be used by the Jews. The wine which Christ used was real wine, not unfermented grape juice. We are not permitted to substitute anything else in place of the earthly elements used by Christ in instituting this sacrament.

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST. When Christ gave His disciples the bread, He said, Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. When He gave them the wine, He said, Drink ye all of it; this cup is the New Testament in My blood, which is shed for you for the remission of sins. Consequently, when we receive the bread in this sacrament, we receive also the body of Christ; and when we receive the wine, we receive also the blood of Christ. And we say of the Sacrament of the Altar, that It is the True Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, under (along with) the bread and wine, given unto us Christians to eat and to drink, as it was instituted by Christ Himself.

The bread and wine do not simply represent the body and blood of Christ (Zwingli's view). The bread and wine are not changed into the body and blood of Christ (the Roman Catholic view, or transubstantiation). The bread and wine are not united with the body and blood of Christ into a third substance different from both (consubstantiation). The bread and wine remain real bread and wine throughout the administration of the Lord's Supper. [1 Cor. 11:28] But there is a communion of the bread and wine with the body and blood of Christ, [1 Cor. 10:16] so that when the communicant receives the bread he receives also the body of Christ, and when he receives the wine, he receives also the blood of Christ. The bread and wine are the earthly vehicles through which the heavenly gift of Christ's body and blood, which were given and shed for us for the remission of sins, are communicated to us. [1 Cor. 11:28,29]

DOCTRINES COMPARED. The Reformed, Lutheran, and Roman Catholic doctrines of the Lord's Supper may be compared and illustrated thus:

Reformed	Lutheran	Roman Catholic
Bread-No Body	Bread-Body	No Bread-Body
Wine-No Blood	Wine-Blood	No Wine-Blood

According to the Reformed view only bread and wine are present; according to the Roman Catholic^{††††} view, only the body and blood of Christ are present; according to the Lutheran and Scriptural doctrine, both the bread and wine and the body and blood of Christ are present in the Holy Supper, and are received by every communicant.

A GREAT MYSTERY. The Lord's Supper is a great mystery; but also a great comfort. We cannot understand how Christ can give us His body and blood in this sacrament. But it is the part of faith to take the Saviour at His word. This the Lutheran Church does in her doctrine.

QUESTIONS.

1. By what different names is this sacrament known and why?
2. From what do we learn what the Lord's Supper is?
3. What is to be said about the earthly elements?
4. When Christ gave His disciples the bread and the wine what did He say?
5. What do we receive, therefore, in the Lord's Supper?
6. What is to be said about Zwingli's view?
7. What is to be said about the Roman Catholic view, and what is it called?
8. What other false doctrine besides these two is to be rejected?
9. How may the Reformed, Lutheran, and Roman Catholic doctrines of the Lord's Supper be compared?

^{††††} *Because of its false doctrine concerning the Lord's Supper, the Roman Catholic Church has fallen into these additional errors: 1. The Sacrifice of the Mass, in which the priest, by blessing the bread and wine, is supposed to turn them into the body and blood of Christ, and thus to offer an unbloody sacrifice of Christ which is as effective as Christ's death on the cross. 2. The withholding of the cup from the laity, lest a single drop of Christ's blood should be spilled. 3. The Elevation of the Host, in which the wafer or host is adored as the body of Christ.

10. Is the true doctrine to be rejected because we do not understand it?

CHAPTER XXXVIII

PART 2 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

II. What benefits are derived from such eating and drinking?

They are pointed out in these words: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins"; namely, through these words, the remission of sins, life and salvation are granted unto us in the sacrament. For where there is remission of sins, there are also life and salvation.

THE BENEFITS DERIVED FROM THE LORD'S SUPPER

The benefits offered in this sacrament and bestowed upon all who receive it in faith are pointed out in these words of the institution: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." Accordingly, the benefits are "remission of sins, life and salvation." For while only the remission (forgiveness) of sins is mentioned in the institution, yet where there is remission of sins, there are also life and salvation. [Rom. 6:23] The Lord's Supper confers all the benefits which Christ secured by His sufferings and death. [Eph. 1:7] Each communicant is assured by the words of Christ Himself that the body which he receives along with the bread was given for him, and that the blood which he receives along with the wine was shed for him, for the remission of his sins. The promise of grace and forgiveness held out to all in the Gospel is thus brought home to each individual in the Lord's Supper. Each believing communicant is individually assured that Christ is his Saviour, and that he has the forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation through Christ's death.

PART 3 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

III. How can the bodily eating and drinking produce such great effects?

The eating and the drinking, indeed, do not produce them; but the words which stand here, namely, "given and shed for you for the remission of sins." These words are besides the bodily eating and drinking, the chief things in the sacrament; and he who believes these words has that which they declare and set forth; namely, the remission of sins.

WHY THE LORD'S SUPPER HAS POWER TO CONFER SUCH BENEFITS

The eating and the drinking, indeed, do not produce such great effects. For bread and wine have no power in themselves to bestow spiritual blessings,

But the Words which stand here, "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." It is the Word of God which gives the sacrament its power. [John 6:63] For Christ has commanded us to use the bread and wine in this way, and has connected the promise of forgiveness with their use. Without the Word, there would be nothing but bread and wine. But Christ fulfils the promise which He has bound up with the bodily eating and drinking, and gives us, with the bread and the wine, His body and blood which were given and shed for us for the remission of sins.

And he who believes these Words has that which they declare, [Matt. 8:13] namely, the remission of sins. Forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation are offered to all who partake of this sacrament, but they are accepted and possessed only by those who believe. The impenitent and unbelieving, if they come to the Lord's Table, receive the body and blood of Christ also, but they receive it to their condemnation, because they do not receive it with a penitent and believing heart. [I Cor. 11:29]

PART 4 OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR

IV. Who is it that receives this sacrament worthily?

Fasting and bodily preparation are, indeed, a good external discipline; but he is truly worthy and well prepared who believes these words: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." But he who does not believe these words or who doubts, is unworthy and unfit; for the words "for you" require truly believing hearts.

HOW THE LORD'S SUPPER IS TO BE RECEIVED

Those who come to the Lord's Table must prepare themselves to come worthily, if they would receive the benefits offered in this sacrament. [I Cor. 11:28. II Cor. 13:5]

Fasting and Bodily Preparation are indeed a Good External Discipline. Fasting before the Lord's Supper is not required. It may be practiced by those who desire to do so, if they do it in order to fit themselves for a more earnest participation in the Holy Supper, and not with the idea that fasting constitutes a merit. The true preparation for the Lord's Supper is not bodily, but spiritual. [Joel 2:13]

He is truly Worthy and Well-prepared, who believes these words, "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." We are to come worthily, not in the sense of deserving, but of earnestly desiring the benefits offered in the sacrament. We come worthily when we come with penitent and believing hearts, [Ps. 51:17. Matt. 11:28] lamenting our sins, longing for forgiveness and for strength to do better, and believing the words spoken to us, "given and shed for thee for the remission of sins."

THE CONFESSIONAL SERVICE. The administration of the Lord's Supper is always preceded by the service of confession and absolution, so that those who desire to come to the Lord's Table may prepare themselves to come worthily. At this service we make a public confession of our sins, of our faith in Christ our Saviour, and of our earnest determination by God's grace to lead a holy life. Since Christ has conferred upon the Church the Power of the Keys, saying, "Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them, and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained," [John 20:23] the minister uses this power and pronounces the absolution. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost he declares to all who truly repent and believe, the entire forgiveness of all their sins. On the other hand, to all who are impenitent and unbelieving he declares, that their sins are retained so long as they do not come to true repentance and faith.

Our Church does not require private confession of sins to the pastor; but if any one is troubled in conscience, and desires to make confession to the minister and to obtain the comfort of an absolution pronounced specially upon him, there is provision for private confession and absolution. Such private confessions are regarded by every true pastor as sacredly confidential. (See the "Questions on Confession," which form one of the additions to the Five Principal Parts of the Catechism.)

Supplemental Information

V. Confession^{†††}

How Christians should be taught to confess.

*What is Confession?

Confession embraces two parts: the one is, that we confess our sins; the other, that we receive absolution, or forgiveness, from the confessor, as from God Himself, and in no wise doubt, but firmly believe, that our sins are thereby forgiven before God in heaven.

What sins should we confess? Before God we should plead guilty of all sins, even of those which we do not know, as we do in the Lord's Prayer. But before the confessor we should confess those sins alone which we know and feel in our hearts.

Which are these? Here consider your station according to the Ten Commandments, whether you are a father, mother, son, daughter, master, mistress, a man-servant or maid-servant; whether you have been disobedient, unfaithful, slothful; whether you have grieved any one by words or deeds; whether you have stolen, neglected, or wasted aught, or done other injury.

* These questions may not have been composed by Luther himself but reflect his teachings and were included in editions of the Small Catechism during his lifetime.

Office of the Keys

In Many of Luther's Small Catechism's there is a section on the Office of the Keys. It is based on Jesus' Words in John 20:22-23. For more on this please see a Luther's Small Catechism protected by copyright. Such as Luther's Small Catechism with Explanation published by Concordia Publishing House St. Louis, Missouri.

What is the Office of the Keys?^{§§§§}

It is the peculiar church power which Christ has given to His Church on earth to forgive the sins of penitent sinners unto them, but to retain the sins of the impenitent, as long as they do not repent.

What are the words in which our Lord Jesus Christ instituted the Office of the Keys?

Thus writes the holy Evangelist John, chapter twentieth: The Lord Jesus breathed on the disciples and said unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them, and whatsoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

What do you believe according to these words?

I believe that when the called ministers of Christ deal with us by His divine command, especially when they exclude manifest and impenitent sinners from, the Christian congregation, and, again, when they absolve those who repent of their sins and are willing to amend, this is as valid and certain, in heaven also, as if Christ, our dear Lord, dealt with us Himself

Luther's Preface to the Small Catechism*

Martin Luther to All Faithful and Godly Pastors and Preachers:

Grace, Mercy, and Peace in Jesus Christ, our Lord.

The deplorable, miserable condition which I discovered lately when I, too, was a visitor, has forced and urged me to prepare [publish] this Catechism, or Christian doctrine, in this small, plain, simple form. Mercy! Good God! what manifold misery I beheld! The common people, especially in the villages, have no knowledge whatever of Christian doctrine, and, alas! many pastors are altogether incapable and incompetent to teach [so much so, that one is ashamed to speak of it]. Nevertheless, all maintain that they are Christians, have been baptized and receive the [common] holy Sacraments. Yet they [do not understand and] cannot [even] recite either the Lord's Prayer, or the Creed, or the Ten Commandments; they live like dumb brutes and irrational hogs; and yet, now that the Gospel has come, they have nicely learned to abuse all liberty like experts.

O ye bishops! [to whom this charge has been committed by God,] what will ye ever answer to Christ for having so shamefully neglected the people and never for a moment discharged your office? [You are the persons to whom alone this ruin of the Christian religion is due. You have permitted men to err so shamefully; yours is the guilt; for you have ever done anything rather than what your office required you to do.] May all misfortune flee you! [I do not wish at this place to invoke evil on your heads.] You command the Sacrament in one form [but is not this the highest ungodliness coupled with the greatest impudence that you are insisting on the administration of the Sacrament in one form only, and on your traditions] and insist on your human laws, and yet at the same time you do not care in the least [while you are utterly without scruple and concern] whether the people know the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the Ten Commandments, or any part of the Word of God. Woe, woe, unto you forever!

Therefore I entreat [and adjure] you all for God's sake, my dear sirs and brethren, who are pastors or preachers, to devote yourselves heartily to your office, to have pity on the people who are entrusted to you, and to help us inculcate the Catechism upon the people, and especially upon the young. And let those of you who cannot do better [If any of you are so unskilled that you have absolutely no knowledge of these matters, let them not be ashamed to] take these tables and forms and impress them, word for word, on the people, as follows:--

In the first place, let the preacher above all be careful to avoid many kinds of or various texts and forms of the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the Sacraments, etc., but choose one form to which he adheres, and which he inculcates all the time, year after year. For [I give this advice, however, because I know that] young and simple people must be taught by uniform, settled texts and forms, otherwise they easily become confused when the teacher to-day teaches them thus, and in a year some other way, as if he wished to make improvements, and thus all effort and labor [which has been expended in teaching] is lost.

Also our blessed fathers understood this well; for they all used the same form of the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments. Therefore we, too, should [imitate their diligence and be at pains to] teach the young and simple people these parts in such a way as not to change a syllable, or set them forth and repeat them one year differently than in another [no matter how often we teach the Catechism].

Hence, choose whatever form you please, and adhere to it forever. But when you preach in the presence of learned and intelligent men, you may exhibit your skill, and may present these parts in as varied and intricate ways and give them as masterly turns as you are able. But with the young people stick to one fixed, permanent form and manner, and teach them, first of all, these parts, namely, the Ten Commandments, the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, etc., according to the text, word for word, so that they, too, can repeat it in the same manner after you and commit it to memory.

But those who are unwilling to learn it should be told that they deny Christ and are no Christians, neither should they be admitted to the Sacrament, accepted as sponsors at baptism, nor exercise any part of Christian liberty, but should simply be turned back to the Pope and his officials, yea, to the devil himself. Moreover, their parents and employers should refuse them food and drink, and [they would also do well if they were to] notify them that the prince will drive such rude people from the country, etc.

For although we cannot and should not force any one to believe, yet we should insist and urge the people that they know what is right and wrong with those among whom they dwell and wish to make their living. For whoever desires to reside in a town must know and observe the town laws, the protection of which he wishes to enjoy, no matter whether he is a believer or at heart and in private a rogue or knave.

In the second place, after they have well learned the text, then teach them the sense also, so that they know what it means, and again choose the form of these tables, or some other brief uniform method, whichever you like, and adhere to it, and do not change a single syllable, as was just said regarding the text; and take your time to it. For it is not necessary that you take up all the parts at once, but one after the other. After they understand the First Commandment well, then take up the Second, and so on, otherwise they will be overwhelmed, so as not to be able to retain any well.

In the third place, after you have thus taught them this Short Catechism, then take up the Large Catechism, and give them also a richer and fuller knowledge. Here explain at large every commandment, [article,] petition, and part with its various works, uses, benefits, dangers, and injuries, as you find these abundantly stated in many books written about these matters. And particularly, urge that commandment or part most which suffers the greatest neglect among your people. For instance, the Seventh Commandment, concerning stealing, must be strenuously urged among mechanics and merchants, and even farmers and servants, for among these people many kinds of dishonesty and thieving prevail. So, too, you must urge well the Fourth Commandment among the children and the common people, that they may be quiet and faithful, obedient and peaceable, and you must always adduce many examples from the Scriptures to show how God has punished or blessed such persons.

Especially should you here urge magistrates and parents to rule well and to send their children to school, showing them why it is their duty to do this, and what a damnable sin they are committing if they do not do it. For by such neglect they overthrow and destroy both the kingdom of God and that of the world, acting as the worst enemies both of God and of men. And make it very plain to them what an awful harm they are doing if they will not help to train children to be pastors, preachers, clerks [also for other offices, with which we cannot dispense in this life], etc., and that God will punish them terribly for it. For such preaching is needed. [Verily, I do not know of any other topic that deserves to be treated as much as this.] Parents and magistrates are now sinning unspeakably in this respect. The devil, too, aims at something cruel because of these things [that he may hurl Germany into the greatest distress].

Lastly, since the tyranny of the Pope has been abolished, people are no longer willing to go to the Sacrament and despise it [as something useless and unnecessary]. Here again urging is necessary, however, with this understanding: We are to force no one to believe, or to receive the Sacrament, nor fix any law, nor time, nor place for it, but are to preach in such a manner that of their own accord, without our law, they will urge themselves and, as it were, compel us pastors to administer the Sacrament. This is done by telling them: Whoever does not seek or desire the Sacrament at least some four times a year, it is to be feared that he despises the Sacrament and is no Christian, just as he is no Christian who does not believe or hear the Gospel; for Christ did not say, This omit, or, This despise, but, This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, etc. Verily, He wants it done, and not entirely neglected and despised. This do ye, He says.

Now, whoever does not highly value the Sacrament thereby shows that he has no sin, no flesh, no devil, no world, no death, no danger, no hell; that is, he does not believe any such things, although he is in them over head and ears and is doubly the devil's own. On the other hand, he needs no grace, life, Paradise, heaven, Christ, God, nor anything good. For if he believed that he had so much that is evil, and needed so much that is good, he would not thus neglect the Sacrament, by which such evil is remedied and so much good is bestowed. Neither will it be necessary to force him to the Sacrament by any law, but he will come running and racing of his own accord, will force himself and urge you that you must give him the Sacrament.

Hence, you must not make any law in this matter, as the Pope does. Only set forth clearly the benefit and harm, the need and use, the danger and the blessing, connected with this Sacrament, and the people will come of themselves without your compulsion. But if they do not come, let them go and tell them that such belong to the devil as do not regard nor feel their great need and the gracious help of God. But if you do not urge this, or make a law or a bane of it, it is your fault if they despise the Sacrament. How could they be otherwise than slothful if you sleep and are silent? Therefore look to it, ye pastors and preachers. Our office is now become a different thing from what it was under the Pope; it is now become serious and salutary. Accordingly, it now involves much more trouble and labor, danger and trials, and, in addition thereto, little reward and gratitude in the world. But Christ Himself will be our reward if we labor faithfully. To this end may the Father of all grace help us, to whom be praise and thanks forever through Christ, our Lord! Amen.

The Lutheran Confessions: What Are They?⁺⁺⁺⁺

The Spirit in Which They Were Written

We use the word "confession" in a variety of ways today. A young man confesses his love for his fiancée. A criminal confesses to a felony. Christians confess their sins to a fellow believer or at the appropriate time in the church service. The Lutheran Confessions are something quite different from all that. They are written, formal statements with which a group of Christians, or an individual, declare to the world their faith, their deepest and undaunted convictions.

The Lutheran Confessions represent the result of more than 50 years of earnest endeavor by Martin Luther and his followers to give Biblical and clear expression to their religious convictions. The important word in that definition is the word "convictions." This word reveals the spirit in which the Lutheran Confessions were written, not a spirit of hesitation or doubt, but of deepest confidence that Lutherans, when they were writing and subscribing the Confessions and creeds, because their content was all drawn from the Word of God, Scripture, were affirming the truth, the saving truth. Listen to what the Lutheran confessors say in the very last paragraph of the Book of Concord (FC SD, XII, 40), a statement that describes their assurance and their doctrinal certainty:

Therefore, it is our intent to give witness before God and all Christendom, among those who are alive today and those who will come after us, that the explanation here set forth regarding all the controversial articles of faith which we have addressed and explained—and no other explanation—is our teaching, faith, and confession. In it we shall appear before the judgment throne of Jesus Christ, by God's grace, with fearless hearts and thus give account of our faith, and we will neither secretly nor publicly speak or write anything contrary to it. Instead, on the strength of God's grace we intend to abide by this confession.

Here we observe that those who wrote and signed the Lutheran Confessions were not merely settling controversies, or expressing opinions, or devising new and clever doctrinal formulations. They were confessing their faith and expressing their determination never to depart from that confession. They take their stand as in the presence of God and stake their very salvation on the doctrine they confess. So confident are they of their position, so certain of their doctrine, that they dare bind not only themselves but also their posterity to it. And in another place they show their willingness to submit themselves not only to the content but to the very phrases of their confession: "We have determined not to depart even a finger's breadth either from the subjects themselves, or from the phrases which are found in [the Confessions]" (Preface of the Book of Concord, quoted from Concordia Triglotta [St. Louis: Concordia, 1921], p. 23).

I am sure that such a profession seems like an impossible anachronism today, a mark of inflexible pride which can no longer be respected or emulated by enlightened people. But certainly with such expressions of certainty the Confessions have captured the spirit of Christ and the New Testament. Our Lord taught with authority and promised His disciples that they would "know the truth." And how often does the inspired apostle Paul dogmatically affirm, "I know," "I speak the truth I am persuaded"!

The Lutheran confessors are convinced that Christians, basing their doctrine on Scripture and the promises of God, can be certain of their salvation and can formulate and confess true statements about God and all the articles of the Christian faith. It is this spirit in which all our Confessions were written and in which they so eloquently give witness to the Gospel of Christ.

The Importance of Doctrine

According to the Lutheran Confessions, true doctrine, i. e., correct teaching about God and His activity toward us, is not some remote possibility but a marvelous fact, the result of God's grace; and this doctrine is demonstrated in the Confessions themselves. Those who wrote our Confessions were convinced of this (FC SD, Rule and Norm, 13); but more than that, they were persuaded that true doctrine, theology (which means language about God), is of inestimable importance to the church and to individual Christians. Why?

1. It is first and foremost by pure doctrine that we honor God and hallow His name, as we pray in the First Petition of the Small Catechism. "For," Luther says, "there is nothing he would rather hear than to have his glory and praise exalted above everything and his Word taught in its purity and cherished and treasured" (LC, 111, 48).
2. It is by agreement in the pure doctrine that permanent concord and harmony can be achieved in the church. "In order to preserve the pure doctrine and to maintain a thorough, lasting, and God-pleasing concord within the church, it is essential not only to present the true and wholesome doctrine correctly, but also to accuse the adversaries who teach otherwise (1 Tim. 3:9; Titus 1:9; 2 Tim. 2:24; 3:16)" (FC SD, Rule and Norm, 14).
3. Doctrine is important to Lutherans because they believe that Christian doctrine is not a human fabrication but originates in God. It is God's revealed teaching about Himself and all He has done for us in Christ. Therefore Luther says confidently and joyfully: "The doctrine is not ours but God's" (WA, 17 11, 233). And he will risk everything for the doctrine, for to compromise would do harm to God and to all the world. Luther's spirit is echoed throughout our Confessions as they affirm that their doctrine is "drawn from and conformed to the Word of God" (FC SD, Rule and Norm, 5, 10).
4. Pure Christian doctrine is important for our Lutheran Confessions because it brings eternal salvation. It "alone is our guide to salvation" (Preface to the Book of Concord, Concordia Triglotta, p. 11). For this reason our Confessions call it "heavenly doctrine" and they never fail to show and apply this saving aim of evangelical doctrine.

This emphasis on the importance of Christian doctrine is often not understood or appreciated in our day of relativism and indifference.

How often do modern church leaders declaim that the church will never achieve purity of doctrine; nor is it necessary! Therefore we should concentrate our efforts toward ministry to people in their needs. The longest article in our Confessions deals with good works and ministry to people in their needs (Ap, IV, 122-400) and insistently admonishes the church to follow such an enterprise. But this does not make doctrine less important! Today when people are leaving the church in droves and abandoning the faith, we must keep our priorities straight.

Luther says:

The great difference between doctrine and life is obvious, even as the difference between heaven and earth. Life may be unclean, sinful, and inconsistent; but doctrine must be pure, holy, sound, unchanging ... not a tittle or letter may be omitted, however much life may fail to meet the requirements of doctrine. This is so because doctrine is God's Word, and God's truth alone, whereas life is partly our own doing.... God will have patience with man's moral failings and imperfections and forgive them. But He cannot, will not, and shall not tolerate a man's altering or abolishing doctrine itself. For doctrine involves His exalted, divine Majesty itself (WA, 30 111, 343 f.)

Strong words! But this is the spirit of confessional Lutheranism.

Again theologians remind us today that what matters for the Christian is his faith relation to Christ: Faith is directed toward Christ and not a body of doctrine. Of course! And how often do our Confessions stress just this point! But the Christ in whom we believe and live and hope is not a phantom or myth, but the very Son of God who became a man, who really lived and suffered and died as our Substitute, and who rose again for our justification. In short, He is the Christ of whom we can speak meaningfully and cognitively; and the minute we begin to speak about Him and confess Him, we are speaking doctrine.

Again we are told that we are saved by Christ, not by pure doctrine. True! But does this make pure doctrine unimportant? We are not saved by good works or social concern either. But does that make social concern and works of love of no account? No, pure doctrine has its function. It enables us to glorify God with our lips, to teach and proclaim a pure and saving Gospel and not a false gospel, to bring poor sinners to know their true condition and to know God as He is, a wonderful and gracious Savior, and not to flounder seeking and chasing phantoms.

Let us take our Confessions seriously when they see pure doctrine as a wonderful gift and instrument for glorifying God and building His church. This was Paul's conviction: "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them; for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee" (1 Tim. 4:16).

Confessional Subscription, an Evangelical Act

Lutherans have always held that creeds and confessions are necessary for the well-being of the church. Just as Christ's church and all Christians are called upon to confess their faith (Matt. 10:32; Rom. 10:9; 1 Peter 3:15; 1 John 4:2), so the church, if it is to continue to proclaim the pure Gospel in season and out of season, must for many reasons construct formal and permanent symbols and confessions and require pastors and teachers to subscribe these confessions. It is impossible for the church to be a nonconfessional church, just as impossible as to be a nonconfessing church. And so today and ever since the Reformation Lutheran churches over the world have required their pastors to subscribe the Lutheran Confessions.

What does this mean? With her confessions the church is speaking to the world, but also to God, who has spoken to her in His Word-speaking to Him in total commitment, speaking to Him by an unequivocal, unconditional response in the spirit of, "We believe, teach, and confess" (FC Ep, Rule and Norm, 1). This response is Scriptural, taken from Scripture itself. How often do we read in our Confessions that the teaching presented is "grounded in God's Word"! And so the Confessions are no more than a kind of "comprehensive summary, rule, and norm," grounded in the Word of God, "according to which all doctrines should be judged and the errors which intruded should be explained and decided in a Christian way" (FC Ep, Heading). This would be an unbelievably arrogant position to take, were it not for the fact that all the doctrine of our Confessions is diligently and faithfully drawn from Scripture.

And so when the Lutheran pastor subscribes the Lutheran Confessions (and the confirmand or layman confesses his belief in the Catechism [LC, Preface, 19]), this is a primary way in which he willingly and joyfully and without reservation or qualification confesses his faith and proclaims to the world what his belief and doctrine and confession really are. Dr. C. F. W. Walther, the father of the Missouri Synod, long ago explained the meaning of confessional subscription, and his words are as cogent today as when they were first written:

An unconditional subscription is the solemn declaration which the individual who wants to serve the church makes under oath (1) that he accepts the doctrinal content of our Symbolical Books, because he recognizes the fact that it is in 15 full agreement with Scripture and does not militate against Scripture in any point, whether that point be of major or minor importance; (2) that he therefore heartily believes in this divine truth and is determined to preach this doctrine.... Whether the subject be dealt with expressly or only incidentally, an unconditional subscription refers to the whole content of the Symbols and does not allow the subscriber to make any mental reservation in any point. Nor will he exclude such doctrines as are discussed incidentally in support of other doctrines, because the fact that they are so stamps them as irrevocable articles of faith and demands their joyful acceptance by everyone who subscribes the Symbols.

This is precisely how the Confessions themselves understand subscription (FC Ep, Rule and Norm, 3, 5, 6; SD, Rule and Norm, 1, 2, 5).

Needless to say, confessional subscription in the nature of the case is binding and unconditional. A subscription with qualifications or reservations is a contradiction in terms and dishonest.

Today many Lutherans claim that such an unconditional subscription is legalistic. Sometimes they assert that such a position is pompous and not even honest.

We might respond: What can possibly be wrong about confessing our faith freely and taking our confession seriously? For it is the freest and most joyful act in the world for those of us who have searched these great confessional writings and found them to be Scriptural and evangelical to subscribe them. Of course, to force or bribe or wheedle a person into subscribing them would be an awful sin and a denial of what our Confessions are, namely symbols, standards around which Christians rally willingly and joyfully in all their Christian freedom.

Confessions Are the Voice of the Church

When I was a boy my father told me a curious story about an occurrence in the 19th century. During the controversy among Lutherans concerning predestination, the old Norwegian Synod sided with the Missouri Synod. One member of the Norwegian Synod demurred vehemently and in his consternation said, "I am the Norwegian Synod." That, of course, was an absurdity, just as it would be absurd for me to claim, "I am the church." The church, as we shall see, 16 according to our Confessions is the total of all believers in Christ.

So it is, in a similar sense, with the Confessions. They do not belong to Luther or Melancthon or those who, sometimes after great struggles, wrote them. They belong to those for whom they were written, the church. Princes subscribed the Augsburg Confession on behalf of their churches. Luther's catechisms were finally subscribed because the lay people had already accepted them. Thousands of clergy subscribed the entire Book of Concord, and the only reason the laity did not do so was the length of the book. All this suggests two things.

First, that every Lutheran ought to be concerned with what is rightfully his and ought to agree with the doctrine of the Confessions. But it suggests also that, if the Confessions really belong to the entire church, then everyone in the church ought to be united in the evangelical doctrine of the Confessions. That was the case when the Book of Concord was compiled in 1580, and it ought to be the case today.

Doctrinal Unanimity, a Blessing to the Church

The Church of the Reformation after the death of Luther in one respect resembled the congregation at Corinth in the first century: It was a church highly endowed with the gifts of the Spirit, but at the same time tragically confused and divided. To the Corinthian congregation Paul wrote: "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Cor. 1:10). Paul had no quarrel with the diversity of spiritual gifts he found in that congregation; he rejoiced in all that, provided it did not polarize the church. But there is only one Christ, he says, who is undivided; one Gospel; and all Christians are to be of the same mind and judgment, united in their faith and doctrine.

The Church of the Reformation took Paul's admonition seriously when after Luther's death doctrinal controversies arose and threatened to destroy its unity in the Gospel. The Lutheran churches recognized that the unity of the Spirit which Paul stressed could only be manifested when there was unanimity "in doctrine and in all its articles and ... the right use of the holy sacraments" (FC SD, X, 31). Their program for 17 unity and concord in a troubled church went as follows: "The primary requirement for basic and permanent concord within the church is a summary formula and pattern, unanimously approved, in which the summarized doctrine commonly confessed by the churches of the pure Christian religion is drawn together out of the Word of God" (FC SD, Rule and Norm, 1).

What a remarkable statement! Here is not the cynical despairing of the possibility of doctrinal unity, so common to our relativistic age! not the sneering rejection of doctrinal unanimity as something inimical to man's freedom and autonomy. No, here is a statement of confidence in the unifying power of the Word and Spirit of God. These old Lutherans were convinced that doctrinal controversies were an offense and doctrinal aberrations pernicious to believers and unbelievers alike. "The opinions of the erring party cannot be tolerated in the church of God," they said, "much less be excused and defended" (FC SD, Intro., 9). But at the same time they maintained with Paul-like optimism that unity in doctrine and all its articles was not a remote possibility, not an impossible goal at the end of a rainbow, but a wonderful blessing that could be achieved by the church which would bow to the Word of God and allow the Spirit to rule in all its life.

And so the Lutheran confessors dare to produce a confession which all are asked to sign and which represents the unanimous declaration of all. They pledge themselves to the Book of Concord and confess: "We have from our hearts and with our mouths declared in mutual agreement that we shall neither prepare nor accept a different or a new confession of our faith. Rather, we pledge ourselves again to those public and well-known symbols or common confessions which have at all times and in all places been accepted in all the churches of the Augsburg Confession" (FC SD, Rule and Norm, 2). And they dare to maintain: "All doctrines should conform to the standards [the Lutheran Confessions] set forth above. Whatever is contrary to them should be rejected and condemned as opposed to the unanimous declaration of our faith" (FC Ep, Rule and Norm, 6). Do such statements reveal pride, cocksureness, narrowness? Not at all! But Pauline, Spirit-led confidence and optimism.

If only we could recapture this spirit today! Openness is an in-word today. And a "wholesome latitude" in doctrine is 18 considered by many Lutherans to be a positive blessing to the church. Not many years ago a Lutheran synod actually stated (but later modified, thank goodness): "We are firmly convinced that it is neither necessary nor possible to agree in all non-fundamental doctrines." But where do the Scriptures or our Confessions say such a thing? Where are we ever told that we Christians need not agree on what Scripture affirms? Yes, let us be open to people's desires and needs, to their diversity of gifts and opinions. But not to error. Let us rather give heed to Paul's words and speak the same thing and be perfectly joined together in the same mind and judgment. Let us face up to doctrinal differences wherever they arise and impinge upon our unity. And let us seek and treasure the doctrinal unanimity of which our Confessions speak. Then we may call ourselves Lutherans.

Liturgical calendar (Lutheran)

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Lutheran liturgical calendar is a listing which details the primary annual festivals and events that are celebrated liturgically by various Lutheran churches. The calendars of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC) are from the 1978 Lutheran Book of Worship and the calendar of Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod (LCMS) and the Lutheran Church - Canada use the Lutheran Book of Worship and the 1982 Lutheran Worship. Elements unique to the ELCA have been updated from the Lutheran Book of Worship to reflect changes resulting from the publication of Evangelical Lutheran Worship in 2006. The elements of the calendar unique to the LCMS have also been updated from Lutheran Worship and the Lutheran Book of Worship to reflect the 2006 publication of the Lutheran Service Book.

The basic element to the calendar is Sunday, which is a festival of Jesus' resurrection. However, Christian Churches have historically observed other festivals which commemorate events in the life of Jesus or of significant individuals in the history of the Church.^[1] The purpose of the liturgical calendar is to guide commemorations as a part of the daily worship of the Lutheran Church. There is some variation associated with the observance of the calendar, as each Lutheran Church creates its own calendar and each congregation must choose independently how many individuals will be commemorated within a given year and how many festivals and lesser festivals they will publicly celebrate, especially if they do not coincide with a Sunday.

Structure

The Lutheran calendar operates on two different cycles: the Temporal Cycle and the Sanctoral Cycle. The Temporal Cycle pivots on the festivals of Christmas and Easter. All Sundays, Seasons, and Festivals are related to these festivals.^[2] Because Easter varies in date each year based on the vernal equinox and the phases of the moon, it is called a moveable feast. Dates affected by placement of Easter include Ash Wednesday and the start of Lent, the start of Easter itself, Pentecost, and Holy Trinity.^[3] Advent, the other pivotal season on the calendar, comes exactly four Sundays before the start of Christmas (if Christmas falls on a Sunday, that day does not count), or the Sunday closest to St. Andrew's Day (November 30).^[3] Like the other Western Church calendars, the first Sunday of Advent is also the first day of the liturgical year.^[4] The Sanctoral Cycle is the fixed daily commemorations of individuals and events not related to the Temporal Cycle of Sundays, Festivals, and Seasons.^[5] It is the Sanctoral Cycle which is sometimes thought of as being the “Calendar of Saints” of a Church.

Beyond their place in the Temporal or Sanctoral Cycles, the events commemorated on the Lutheran liturgical calendar fall into one of three different categories depending upon their liturgical priority: Festivals, Lesser Festivals, and Commemorations.

Festivals

The Festivals are Nativity, Epiphany, the Baptism of our Lord, the Transfiguration, the Annunciation, Palm Sunday, Easter, the Ascension, Pentecost, Holy Trinity, All Saints, and Christ the King.^[6] Most of these festivals are tied to the moveable feast of Easter. Festivals take precedence over all other days, including Sundays, have their own collects and Eucharistic proper prefaces. Of the festivals, Christmas is considered to be twelve days in length (from December 25 until January 5) and Easter is fifty days in length (from Easter Sunday up to and inclusive of Pentecost).^[7] For Easter, Sundays are considered to be another part of the festival. For the Ascension which, falling on fortieth day of Easter, will always be on a Thursday, the festival is sometimes transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter in addition to or in place of the normal part of the Easter festival for that day.^[8]

There is another type of day which, while not a festival, is considered to be equal with a festival. These days, called Days of Special Devotion, are Ash Wednesday and all the days of Holy Week, especially Good Friday.^[9] These particular days, like other festivals, automatically take precedence over any event on the calendar and sometimes even over other festivals. A good example of this would be in 2005 when Good Friday and the Annunciation fell on the same day (March 25). The Annunciation was transferred to March 28, or the second day of Easter, to make room for Good Friday.^[10] The principle of the Church of Sweden is that the Annunciation is celebrated on the Sunday between 21–27 March; although, should Good Friday or any other day of Holy Week, or Easter Sunday or Monday respectively, fall on 25 March, Annunciation is moved to the Sunday before Palm Sunday. (For instance, in 2003 Annunciation was celebrated on 13 March; 2008 (when Easter Sunday was 23 March) it was celebrated on the 9th.) One unique feature of the ELCA calendar is that it has given congregations the options of two dates for the Transfiguration.^[9] Following most other Western Churches, the ELCA moved the Transfiguration from its August 6 date to the Last Sunday after Epiphany (the Sunday immediately preceding Ash Wednesday) as an option to the traditional Last Sunday after Epiphany in an effort to encourage a wider observance of the Transfiguration within congregations. However, the traditional date of August 6 was left on the calendar. Congregations were given the option of observing Transfiguration on the Last Sunday after the Epiphany and August 6, thus leaving open the possibility that the Transfiguration could be commemorated twice within a calendar year.^[11] In Sweden, Transfiguration Day is celebrated on the seventh Sunday after Trinity Sunday, which is the eighth Sunday after Pentecost.

Lesser Festivals

These are days which are associated with the life of Christ or the Apostles and deserve attention in their own right. Lesser Festivals do not have priority over festivals and technically do not have precedence over ordinary Sundays. However, the Lutheran Book of Worship does permit the celebration of a Lesser Festival on Sundays where the normal color of the day would be green (that is, seasons after Epiphany or after Pentecost) or on the Sundays in Christmas.^[12] This is abrogated for patronal festivals (that is, the day commemorating the saint or event for which a congregation is named) provided that they do not take place in Lent, Advent, or Easter, in which case they must also be transferred to the next convenient weekday.^[12] Most Lesser Festivals have their own collects and a few, such as All Saints, have their own proper.

Commemorations

Commemorations are for individuals or events which have been noteworthy in the life of the Church and in the history of Lutheranism in particular.^[13] These days do not take precedence over any other festival day, and if there is a conflict between a commemoration and a festival of any other rank, the commemoration is generally transferred to the next open weekday. If a commemoration falls on a Sunday where the color of the day is green, the collect for which that individual or event belong to could be said before the daily collect/prayer of the day or in place of it. For example, if September 13 fell on a Sunday and there was a desire to commemorate St. John Chrysostom, the pastor would recite the common of theologians and then the prayer of the day or the common of theologians on its own. The person may also be mentioned by name in the prayers of the faithful in addition to recitation of the applicable collect. Finally, their lives might be summarized or their teachings related to the day's lessons in some way.^[14]

In cases of conflict between commemorations (for example, November 11 with St. Martin of Tours and Søren Kierkegaard), there is no order of precedence, and individual worship planners need to choose which commemoration, if any, to highlight. In some cases, several individuals are listed together (June 14 with St. Basil the Great, St. Gregory the Theologian, and St. Gregory of Nyssa) because of their close association with each other, and they are thus designed to be commemorated jointly, not as a choice between one or the other.^[15]

The schedule of commemorations within the ELCA has been specifically designed so that there is at least one person on the calendar from each century so as to emphasize the continuity of Christian tradition.^[16] Clearly, some centuries have more commemorations than others, the largest number of persons commemorated being in the first four centuries of Christian history and immediately following the Reformation. This leaves the space from the 5th to the 15th centuries and the 16th to the 20th centuries rather sparse; nevertheless, it is an improvement over some calendars wherein only a very few persons, all from the patristic or Reformation periods, were commemorated.^[17]

Liturgical colors

The service books of Lutheran Churches designate specific colors for events which are listed on the liturgical calendars and the seasons which are a part of the Temporal Cycle. This color is sometimes known as “the color of the day.” The Lutheran Church generally follows the color scheme which is used by other churches in Western Christianity since Lutheranism has historically been linked with the Roman Catholic Church. The color of the day dictates the color of the vestments for all ministers and the color of paraments. White is the color designated for Festivals of Christ, with gold sometimes offered as an alternative for the first days of Easter.^[18] Festivals for which white is the color of the day include:

- Christmas (all twelve days)
- Epiphany
- The Baptism of our Lord (First Sunday after Epiphany)
- Transfiguration (Last Sunday after Epiphany and/or August 6)

- Easter (all days except Pentecost)
- Holy Trinity
- Christ the King

White is also used as the color for anyone commemorated on the calendar who was not martyred and is the color appointed for funerals regardless of whatever the color of the day might otherwise be. Purple is commonly used for the season of Lent. It is also optional for use during Advent, though blue is the preferred color for this season because of its hopeful connotations rather than the penitential character implied by purple and its association with Lent.^[18] Red is used for the commemorations of martyrs and is used on the Day of Pentecost. Scarlet is also used for Holy Week, though purple is also allowed. Black (with purple as an alternative) may be used on Ash Wednesday. The only day which does not have a color is Good Friday, when all the paraments are traditionally removed from the church. The color for Holy Saturday is white or gold since it is the day when the Great Vigil of Easter is celebrated, though until the vigil, the church would remain void of paraments.
